A SETTLEMENT WITHOUT GOING INTO THE COURTS

Such Is Now the Possibility in Reference to the Dispute With the Gas Company.

GAS OFFICIALS TO CONFER WITH CITY SOON

As was exclusively detailed in the News Review last evening the citizens and gas consumers of East Liverpool are pleased at the turn in the controversy with the gas corporation so far as it has progressed, and the prospects are the very best for a settlement without the necessity of carrying the matter into court.

City Solicitor George E. Davidson and Councilman Thomas Cannon, who represented the city and the private consumers, returned from Ravenna last evening, and their report to the city council was made at once. The hearing of the application for a restraining order to prevent the gas company from either removing the supply or increasing the rate was to have been heard by Judge Robinson yesterday, but the News Review received the news late in the afternoon that there would be no hearing at present.

Upon the arrival of all the interested parties at Ravenna they were not long in getting together and a conference was agreed upon. Solicitor Davidson reported to the council that the following agreement had been entered into between the two parties:

"For the purpose of providing for a conference with a view to adjusting all matters in dispute, the parties to the foregoing action agree that the application for injunction shall be continued until September 21, 1903.

"In the interim the Ohio Valley Gas company agrees that it will not shut off its gas from its consumers who have paid their July bills and that any discount that any consumer is entitled to by tender on or before September 10, 1903, he shall likewise be entitled to if tendered on or before September 21, 1903.

"It is further agreed that said conference shall be held at East Liverpool, Ohio, on September 15, 1903, at 10 o'clock.

"Dated September 8, 1903.

Eleven Townships Represented at the Conference Now in Progress at Lisbon.

Lisbon, September 9.—(Special).—The committee appointed by County Chairman J. S. McNutt to investigate and report on the merits of some system other than the present to make Republican county nominations, is in session here today. When the chairman, R. N. Chamberlain, called the meeting to order shortly before noon, 11 townships were represented as follows:

R. N. Chamberlain, Unity; Edward Thomas, Butler; George B. Harvey, Center; L. D. Van Posen, Elkrun; L. H. Copeland, Franklin; W. M. Travis, Madison; J. C. Billingsley, Middleton; A. R. Dow, Perry; N. J. Coulson, Hanover; R. M. Hull, Washington; John McDonald, West. County Chairman McNutt and Secretaries C. C. Connell were also present.

The committee organized by electing A. R. Dow, of Salem, secretary, after which the committee adjourned until 1 o'clock.

Suit on a Note.
Lisbon, September 9.—(Special).—Robert Loudon, of Hanover, has entered suit against L. J. McGhee, of Pittsburg, asking judgment for $275 with interest from October 17, 1897, alleged to be due on a promissory note. A car of oats on the C. & P. tracks in East Liverpool has been attached to satisfy the claim.

POSTOFFICE OFFICIALS AGAIN INDICTED

Grand Jury Investigating Postoffice
Frauds Charge Conspiracy.

Washington, September 9.—(Special).—The names of the two officials indicted yesterday by the grand jury, now investigating the alleged post-office frauds, were made known today. They are George W. Beavers and August W. Machen, both high officials in the department.

The charge made by the grand jury is conspiracy.

SITUATION IN SYRIA IS MORE GRAVE

Feared That the Massacre of the Christians at Lebanon is Intended.

Cairo, Egypt, September 9.—(Special).—Late advices from Syria are that the situation is growing more and more grave. It is feared that the massacre of the Christians at Lebanon is intended.

Washington, September 9.—(Special).—The navy department was informed today by Admiral Cotton that the situation at Beirut is improving.

ANXIETY OVER THE BOND SALE

City Officials Think the Pittsburg
Concern Doesn't Want
the $93,000.

DELAY IS UNEXPLAINED

The belief is quite general among the city officials that J. R. Williams & Co., of Pittsburg, do not intend to buy the $93,000 worth of bonds over which there has been endless comment for several months. It is thought that the company has an object in deferring matters.

At the regular meeting of council held last evening a member asked Auditor Davidson if he had heard anything favorable from the company and he replied that he had not. He received several communications from the concern last week, and was to have heard from it again before this. The reason for the delay cannot be figured.

As a result of the uneasiness being felt by council and other it is probable that Auditor Davidson will be instructed to get a definite statement from the company as to when it will take the bonds and turn over the money. If he cannot get a favorable report council will very likely let it be known that the bonds are for sale again and receive more bids. One previous error made by council was when it accepted the bid of Williams & Co. without demanding a bond. Had this been done, the city would be much better off financially if the company does not take the bonds.

It is certainly expedient that council take immediate steps to get the money for those bonds. There are debts too numerous to enumerate that must be paid, and there is not a penny to pay them with. Among them is the cost of

MRS. KULOW SAYS THAT SHE IS TAKING A PLEASURE TRIP

The many creditors of Mrs. J. A. Kulow, proprietress of a grocery store, Eighth street, West End, for a couple of years, continue in mourning over her prolonged absence. Some of them have instituted proceedings to recover the goods sold to the woman and numerous cases will be set for hearings by local justices during the next few days. She has written to a friend that she is on a pleasure trip.

Three suits were filed against Mrs. Kulow yesterday. Faulk Bros. are suing in the court of Squire McLane for $16.50, which amount they claim is due them for feed. W. F. Davidson, of Steubenville, sues for $89 in the court of Squire Rose for general merchandise, and George Arner, of Chester, sues for nearly $100 in the court of Squire McCarron. It is considered doubtful if the trio above named will be able to recover the amounts they

OHIO NOT LIKELY TO BE REPRESENTED

No Regiment Will Be Sent to the Government Manoeuvres
in Kentucky.

THE BEST SHOWING MADE

At State Encampment Was By the Eighth Which Would Be Glad to Go.
Merger of All Ohio Wholesale Groceries Proposed.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, September 9.—Governor Nash inclines to the view that an Ohio regiment will not be sent to the government maneuvers at West Point, Ky. They will be held from September 26 to October 14, and each state is entitled to representation. The governor thinks that the Ohio soldiers would not care to go when they learn that they would only receive pay at the rate of $13 per month, the regular government allowance. Some time ago it was announced that General Charles Dick had arranged for a representation of the Ohio National Guard at these maneuvers, but thus far no steps have been taken to carry out this course. It was generally understood that the regiment making the best showing at the recent encampment would be selected to go to Kentucky, and according to information received from authentic sources competent military judges picked the Eighth regiment as the finest from all standpoints. The regiment easily excelled in drilling and was the only command completely equipped in the regulation uniforms. The uniformity of the regiment as to dress was generally commented upon. It would seem if a regiment is sent it would be the Eighth and if there is any deviation from the original announcement by General Dick, keen disappointment will be felt by the officers of the Eighth, who are anxious to take the trip. A tacit promise was given that the regiment making the best record would be sent, and the Eighth officers want to see it fulfilled.

Figures given out from the adjutant general's office indicate that the recent National Guard encampment cost about $75,000. Division Commissary Colonel Harry Freese, of Canton, kept the subsistence expenses down to $16,760.40. The per diem of the mounted officers, paid by the national government, amounted to a little over $9,000. The per diem of other officers and enlisted men amounted to a little over $14,000. This the state pays.

A meeting will be held in this city today having for its object the forming of a merger of all the wholesale grocery interests of the state. The projectors are F. L. and W. M. Letts, of Chicago, who, aided by E. E. Dow, of Toledo, one of the leading wholesalers of the state, have been at work on the scheme for the past six months. All the wholesale grocers have been requested to attend or to send representatives with authority to act. If organized, the merger will be known as the Ohio Grocery company, with headquarters probably at Columbus. There are 110 wholesale grocery firms in the state, and 15 have practically agreed to go into the company. The majority have not committed themselves on the proposition, but are expected to be represented at the meeting. The Alliance Grocery company, of Alliance, is said to be one of the firms which have already agreed to join the movement.

Charles P. Salen, of Cleveland, Tom Johnson's personal representative, has been made chairman of the Democratic state executive committee and will manage the fall campaign. Hon. Anthony Howells, of Massillon, has been made the Eighteenth district representative on the committee. Chairman Salen will appoint a committee on meetings and speakers comprising one member from each county. Headquarters will not be moved from Columbus. It is thought probable that Johnson and Clarke will speak in Columbiana county. The Democratic campaign from all indication will be prosecuted very energetically and Chairman Dick has issued a warning against lack of confidence and over-confidence on the part of the Republicans. This is the greatest danger, he says.

BIG BARN BURNED

Lightning Strikes a Blaze That Caused a Big Loss to a Farmer.

Lisbon, Sept. 9.—(Special).—A large barn on the Edward Starr farm near the Beaver church, 5 1/2 miles from Lisbon was fired by lightning at 6 o'clock last evening and totally destroyed with all its contents, of hay and grain and farming tools. There was no insurance. The contents belonged to John Lykauf, the tenant.

Suspicious Conduct Leads to Arrest.
Lisbon, September 9.—(Special).—Joseph Bush, an Italian, was arrested here this morning. He is suspected of insanity and officers have been after him for several days. He has been following women and annoying them on the streets. He has been working at the Lisbon sewer pipe works.

BUSINESS MAN FLEES FROM PARKERSBURG, W. VA., WITH PRETTY YOUNG WOMAN

Creditors With Large Claims Are in Mourning—
Couple Came to This City.

Another chapter in a sensational bankruptcy case at Parkersburg, in which one of the wealthiest and most highly respected business men of that city went to the wall and left creditors, who never once entertained a thought of his financial condition, to sing for thousands of dollars, has been added by the flight of the man with a well known woman, also of Parkersburg, to this city. The name of the bankrupt is J. M. Stone, who was the senior member of the Stone & Gates Lumber company, which concern did the largest business of any firm in that section of the country for years. Of his flight to East Liverpool the Ripley, W. Va., Herald says:

"Stone is supposed to be accompanied by a woman, Mattie Reese, formerly a dining room girl at the Commercial Hotel, and from Racy, Ritchie county, who is said to have been the mistress of a Parkersburg home, presumably kept up by Stone, for a year or two. She is said to have disposed of a $1500 house, last week, realizing about $600, and left Parkersburg on a north bound Ohio river train," telling the conductor she was going to East Liverpool and checked her baggage for some point in Ohio, where she was probably joined by Stone, who may have gone via Cumberland and Pittsburg. She had also disposed of $300 worth of household goods at $65. It is not believed that

THOUGHT HE HAD THE SMALLPOX

A Stranger Who Was Ill Caused
Consternation at City
Hall.

TRUSTEES CARE FOR HIM

His face, neck and entire body completely covered with blotches, resembling much the marks of small pox, dark circles under his eyes and trembling from head to foot, Walter Smith, aged 28, straggled into the city hall shortly after noon today and applied for a place where he could receive medical attention. The general appearance of the man was so bad that for a moment great excitement prevailed at the building.

Smith said that he had been working for several months on the Van Fossan farm, a few miles north of the city, and that he was turned away a few days ago owing to his sickness. The people for whom he worked thought him sick with small pox and ordered him to depart. He went from there to a farm back of Wellsville and worked a couple of days when he was sent away again. He walked to Wellsville yesterday and applied to the mayor of that city for aid but was heartlessly turned away and he continued his journey to this city. Arriving this morning he went to several places but was received coldly everywhere and as a last resort he found his way to the city hall.

Sanitary Policeman Burgess examined the man carefully and pronounced his affliction a severe attack of rash together with blood poisoning. He was told to go to the township trustees. Smith was about the dirtiest looking individual that has been seen in the city in years. From his appearance one would have taken him to be at least 45 years of age. He says he has lived in the state of Ohio all his life and that his parents died when he was but two years old. The trustees will likely take care of him.

A motion by Dr. W. E. Morris, to the effect that the Bell phone be adopted at the rate charged by that company, was adopted unanimously.

WAGES STILL STAND

Railroad Laborers Struck Against a Reduction of Their Pay to $1.40 a Day.

Lisbon, September 9.—(Special).—A strike of the 200 or 300 Italian laborers employed on the Ft. Wayne railroad at Columbiana was adjusted last evening and the men resumed work today, having been idle but one day. The men received $1.50 per day and objected to a cut of 10 a day. The matter was settled by the company agreeing to allow the wages to remain at $1.50.

To Save Her Sight.

Lisbon, September 9.—(Special).—Mary Helman, aged 17, daughter of C. C. Helman, of Lisbon, will be taken to Alliance tomorrow, where one of her eyes will be examined by a specialist. The eye was injured by her face being struck by a missile from an air gun last spring.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

TRADE CONDITIONS.

During the last week the crockery business in New York waterrooms has been rather quiet, but not unseasonable. The cold, rainy days and the yacht races had, of course, some effect in curtailing the demand, but just at this time of the year, the trade generally experiences a waiting market, says the Commercial. Most of the buyers have not yet returned from their vacations and the bustle incident to fall business will not start in until next week. There are, however, bright prospects for increasing trade during the remainder of the year.

Advises from the pottery centers report that orders are arriving quite regularly, although there is plenty of room for improvement. All the potteries are now in operation and there are enough orders on hand to keep things moving. The traveling men are on the road, sizing up the situation in the various localities and pushing their new production. They generally report good prospects and trade conditions.

The dullness shown in the domestic pottery line is also reflected to a greater or less extent in foreign wares, but the latter are holding their own in anticipation of a heavy demand a little later.

MINERVA NOTES.

John Castello has left for a few weeks' visit in Salem.

Elmer McDevitt, Fred Owens, E. Woolkerott, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Clark, Miss Amelia Kell and O. Boles visited with friends in East Liverpool over Sunday.

William Malcolm and Ben Luke stopped a short time in town Tuesday evening on their way to Carrollton, where they are employed in the pottery.

Mrs. John Goddard is spending a few days with friends in Wellsville.

THE WEATHER.

Ohio—Fair in west, showers in east portion; cooler in west portion; Thursday fair; fresh southwest to north-west winds.

Western Pennsylvania—Showers; Thursday probably fair; fresh southwest to north-west winds.

West Virginia—Showers and cooler; Thursday fair.

Dan Cronin, of the Salem China company, was a business visitor in town Monday.

George Wyllie was in Liverpool the first of the week on business.

The Minerva China company is at present running almost in full and prospects of a good fall trade. The line of ware that is being made is quite fine and far beyond expectations.

INTEREST AROUSED.

The interest manifested in the celebration of Labor day this year was so pronounced among the pottery locals that the result is already being felt in more ways than one. The organizations which held meetings last night were characterized by more enthusiasm on the part of the members, than has been known for months. It is expected that the meetings will be better attended and more interesting for a long time to come. Officers and members are taking up the work with renewed vigor and there will undoubtedly be a noticeable change for the better in every local in the city.

CLAY MINERS STRIKE.

The clay miners employed at the Great Western and Little Giant mines at Toronto are out on a strike because the operators would not grant their demand of two cents a ton more for clay mined. The present scale is 20 cents and the men ask 22. About 20 men are affected. The operators claim they will not grant the increase. Several of the striking miners have left town, having secured work at other mines.

NOW AT TORONTO.

Will Witham, formerly of this city, is one of the victims of the change at the Thomas plant, Lisbon, from general ware to electric porcelain. Mr. Witham was in the city for Labor day and was the guest of Will Devon, of Thompson avenue, leaving this morning for Toronto, where he has secured a situation with the American China company. Before going to Lisbon Mr. Witham was the foreman of the plant at Canonsburg.

THOMPSON'S BUSY.

Last week was a busy one at the Thompson, with the exception of the decorating department, which had only the usual amount to do. In several departments the operatives were compelled to work overtime to turn out the ware as fast as it was needed to fill imperative orders. The prospects are bright for a good fall trade with the Thompson.

Federal Grand Jury Returns
Seven More Indictments
in Postal Cases.

BEAVERS ARRESTED IN NEW YORK

Several Cases Yet Remain to Be Disposed of—Warrants Out for Indicted Individuals—Leopold Stern Located Across the Border.

Washington, Sept. 9.—After deliberating for several weeks over a mass of documents submitted by the postoffice inspectors, the federal grand jury returned seven indictments in postal cases, involving six different persons. All the indictments were kept off the public record and both the officials of the district attorney's office and of the postoffice department refused to divulge names or details of the indictments until the parties indicted are arrested. The identity of the indicted individuals thus was left a matter of conjecture. It is expected that arrests will occur today and that the postoffice department will have some announcement to make during the forenoon.

Work in Washington Almost Finished. The grand jury's action probably marks the beginning of the end of the investigation that has been in progress since the middle of last March. Voluminous evidence has been laid before the grand jury as the result of the inquiry, and while the present report of the jury disposes of most of the cases, there yet remain several cases to be passed upon. When the latter are disposed of, according to Postmaster General Payne, the investigation, so far as the work at Washington is concerned, will be at an end for all practical purposes. Several of the persons indicted live outside of Washington. They will be arrested as soon as bench warrants can be served.

Postmaster General Payne and Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Eristow received word of the grand jury's action after that body reported and subsequently they had a long conference on the subject. Both officials refused to divulge details pending official notification of arrests. Two other important events occurred in the postal inquiry.

Leopold Stern, the Baltimore contractor, who disappeared from Baltimore before he could be arrested or an indictment returned July 31 last was located at Toronto, and the long delayed surrender of George W. Beavers, the former head of the salary and allowance division, to the New York authorities took place. The postal officials have been searching for Stern ever since he disappeared and finally received word from the Canadian authorities that he is in Toronto. They expressed considerable

CROWDED GRAND STAND FALLS

Twenty-Four Injured, Three Probably Fatally—Ambulances Convey Wounded to Hospital.

Leavenworth, Kan., Sept. 9.—A grand stand erected on a knoll on the Fort Leavenworth reservation gave way during a sham battle by regular troops, injuring 24 persons. Many received broken legs. Fully 1,500 people were crowded upon it.

There was a heavy artillery duel with siege guns. Three battalions of infantry were using black powder. Some one announced that the cavalry were emerging from a ravine to charge. People on the grand stand jumped up to see them through the smoke and the entire stand went down with a crash. The utmost confusion followed, accompanied by shrieks of victims. Many were pinned down under the boards.

The confusion was indescribable until the regular soldiers formed a line and kept all back not injured or caring for those injured. The battle, which was at its height on the opposite side of the road, was called off at once and the soldiers began taking care of the injured. Ambulances were used to convey people to the city hospitals and within an hour after the accident the injured had all been removed. All those injured are alive, but it is believed three will die.

It will not do to conclude, because the natural gas companies have staved off a hearing in the injunction proceedings for 10 days that they are ready to obey the city council and acknowledge the right very plainly vested in the city by the Ohio statutes to fix the rate at which gas must be sold. However, the companies have signed an agreement to provide for "a conference with a view of adjusting all matters in dispute," and naturally the city and the gas consumers feel greatly encouraged. Evidently the gas purveyors are hoping to make a compromise. We do not believe they will find much disposition on the part of council or the citizens to accept any terms other than those which are set down in the recently enacted ordinance fixing the price of natural gas at the figure which prevailed before the attempted raise. It will be an easy matter for the gas combination to adjust the questions in dispute upon that basis, and a difficult task to adjust it otherwise. It is quite evident that the gas people see that the Ohio law is something which it will not be easy to evade or get around. It is well enough to listen to what they have to say, though it is difficult to understand why they could not have had their explanations and excuses ready earlier. But a compromise that would increase rates would be a most unpopular and most unjust one. The city will hear the gas company, but it will stand up for its rights under the law and the ordinance. Preparations for a legal fight should be kept up; the people are not in the mood for surrendering.

Chester is to be congratulated upon its prospects for improved schools. Not only has the central building been enlarged, providing light and cheerful rooms for an increased number of pupils, but the school course has been revised and the schools thoroughly graded, and at the opening of the term next week the young town will not only have a well-attended high school, but one that is well organized and well equipped. The Chester school board and Prof. Miller, the superintendent, appear thoroughly awake to the school needs of the town and doing their best to supply them. From the present outlook Chester, though in its infancy as a town, proposes to be fully abreast of older and larger communities in all that relates to educational work. Chester is starting wisely. The money expended in the betterment of her schools is the very best investment she could possibly make. A town that provides liberally for education is bound to prosper.

The horrors of Turkish misgovernment should be an object lesson to the world. How long must the massacre of Christians and natives be suffered to continue before civilized governments are persuaded that it is their duty to take a hand in restoring order?

A New York doctor says that eating is only a habit. So it is, and one of the most expensive. But the world has become hopelessly addicted to it and will not be in a hurry to take his advice and change to a diet of air and water.

Russia and Austria are insisting on the porte restoring order in Macedonia, and the Turk is doing it in the old way—by wholesale slaughter, thus removing disorder by removing the population.

Seven more indictments in connection with the postal frauds. Democratic statesmen who expected to see the guilty escaping are again reminded that that is not the Republican way.

The Salvation army will undertake missionary work in the pistol and feud belt in Kentucky, and there are few spots that need it more.

What kind of a message was it which informed the Crisis that the petitions for enjoining the gas companies were

BEEF, IRON AND WINE.

When you buy a preparation of beef, iron and wine, be sure you get a good one. Never take that cheap stuff which you can sometimes buy under the name of beef, iron and wine. We prepare a beef, iron and wine which is composed of the richest, purest extract of beef, a good quality of sherry wine and the most digestible form of iron. Beef is nutritious; wine stimulates, and iron is a recognized blood maker. This is a splendid tonic, containing the three elements which every tonic should possess. Price, 50c. per bottle. Six bottles for $2.50. Delivered to any part of the city.

AT THE THEATER

"Judged Guilty" was presented by the Dilger-Cornell company at the opera house last evening to a good sized and very appreciative audience. Tonight the sterling melodrama, "Enemies for Life," will occupy the boards. This company is furnishing excellent attractions at low prices. The specialties between the acts are excellent. The play last night was well staged and well acted, every part being in capable hands. The company is making a decidedly favorable impression.

The same Baltimore that gave the world an Edwin Booth, a John Wilkes Booth, a Stuart Robson and a host of other noted stage names, was the birthplace of Caroline Rohr, that clever emotional actress, who is to appear in the title role of "Tess of the D'Urbervilles" at the Grand opera house Monday evening, September 14. Here is a young woman who has played as many parts during her short career as generally falls to the lot of an old-timer.

SCROFULA A DISEASE WE INHERIT.

Scrofula manifests itself in many ways. Swelling of the glands of the neck and throat. Catarrh, weak eyes, white swelling, offensive sores and abscesses, skin eruptions, loss of strength and weakness in muscles and joints. It is a miserable disease and traceable in almost every instance to some family blood taint. Scrofula is bred in the bone, is transmitted from parent to child, the seeds are planted in infancy and unless the blood is purged and purified and every atom of the taint removed Scrofula is sure to develop at some period in your life.

150 South 5th Street. MRS. RUTH BERKLY, Salina, Kan.

No remedy equals S. S. S. as a cure for Scrofula. It cleanses and builds up the blood, makes it rich and pure, and under the tonic effects of this great Blood Remedy, the general health improves, the digestive organs are strengthened, and there is a gradual but sure return to health. SALVATION ARMY GOING TO KENTUCKY

Col. Holz And Others Will Invade Mountain Districts Where the Feudists Dwell.

Cleveland, September 9.—Col. R. E. Holz, of the Salvation army, has returned from New York, bringing the uniforms to be worn by the officers who go forth under his command to make the evangelistic invasion of the feud districts in the mountains of Kentucky. While in New York Col. Holz perfected arrangements for the invasion and secured approval of his plan to locate posts for permanent work in the feud district.

The Salvation army tailor made the uniforms on United States army plans, and the officers will wear the leggings and campaign hats like Uncle Sam's soldiers.

Col. Holz will be in command. With him will be Capt. Boyd and Lieut. Slayton, of Cleveland; Capt. White, Ensign Zeff and Capt. Pond, of Pittsburgh; Capt. Escott, Capt. Altoff, Capt. Gallan and Capt. White, of Louisville. The men chosen are all good singers and musicians, and will make music an attractive feature of the campaign.

The officers will meet in Cincinnati September 14. Horses and camp equipment will be supplied at Jackson, Ky., and the campaign will open there with two days' services.

From there they will visit Sallorville and half a dozen other places; then cross the Cumberland mountains into Virginia and Tennessee, closing at Knoxville September 29.

All arrangements on the route have been made by Captains Altoff and Escott. Lieut. Slayton will be one of the officers located in the districts to develop the work.

Col. Holz says he has assurances of cordial welcome and co-operation from all the places to be visited.

REALM OF SPORTS

WHEELING WILL REMAIN IN THE CENTRAL LEAGUE

Team Draws Well Regardless of Its Standing And Is Now Making a Great Record.

Wheeling has proved the best paying city in the Central league and will be retained next year in spite of the talk to the contrary. The only objection to the City of Stogies has been its great distance from the other cities of the league, but the good attendance at the games, regardless of the standing of the team, more than offsets the objection.

The Wheeling team is making a record that probably will not be exceeded by any team in any league. After half the season below the .500 mark, the stogies struck a fast clip and have been showing the way for the other teams. Leaders and tail enders have looked alike and with the three games on Labor day they have won 22 out of the last 24 and seem to be safely entrenched in fourth place.

That the stogies have some strong players is apparent from the fact that managers of teams in the major organizations are after them. Catcher Shannon was recently released to the St. Louis Americans and has been taking his regular turn in the box. He caught a nice game Sunday and will make good.

In the recent games Miller, the popular southpaw who played here with the preachers this season, has been winning his share. He has already shown sufficient ability to warrant the Wheeling papers to assert that he will be retained for next season.

Synopsis of Preceding Chapters.

CHAPTER I.—Grenfell Lorry, a wealthy occupant who refuses to neglect to do anything with the charming foreign girl on the train from Denver to Washington. The pair are left behind when the train stops for repairs in West Virginia. Lorry wires ahead to hold the train. He and the unknown girl ride twenty miles in a touring car in a mountain coach. Lorry knows it is a dangerous ride, but he is so lovingly, but a near approach to it as the rolling stage tumbles the passengers about. III.—Lorry dines with the foreign party, consisting of Miss Guggenlocker, Uncle Caspar and Aunt Yvonne. They are natives of Graustark, a country Lorry had never heard of before. IV.—Lorry shows the foreigners the sights of Washington. They leave for New York to sail on the Kaiser Wilhelm. Miss Guggenlocker naively calls Lorry her "Ideal American" and invites him to come and see her at Edgewood. V.—Lorry is infuriated, Lorry hurries to New York. The name Guggenlocker is not on the steamer list. He sees the steamer off. Miss G. waves him a kiss from the deck. VI.—Lorry joins his old friend, Harry Anguish, an American artist in Paris. Graustark and its capital, Edgewood, are introduced by a guide book. The Americans get no trace of the Guggenlockers there. VII.—Lorry sees his charmer driving in a carriage with a beautiful companion of her own sex. He gets a glance of recognition, but the carriage rolls on, leaving the lovers unsolved. Later he receives a note at the hotel signed Sophia Guggenlocker, inviting him to visit her next day. VIII.—In the evening Lorry and Anguish ramble about the grounds of the castle where dwells the court of the princess of Graustark. They overhear a plot to abduct the princess and resolve to capture the plotters red handed. IX.—Following the conspirators, Lorry finds himself in a room he heard them designate as that of the princess. X.—Lorry tells the princess of the plot. Mutual recognition; she is Miss Guggenlocker. XI.—Lorry tells the princess of the abduction plot. He tells Lorry that she belongs to the prince. XII.—Lorry quarrels in the castle. The princess visits him, but forbids all talk of love. XIII.—Graustark is bankrupt and owes the neighboring principedom of Asphain $200,000. The creditor demands cash or the crown of the richest district of Graustark. XIV.—The Prince of Asphain offers to extend the loan if the princess will marry his son Lorenz. Prince Gabriel, of Dawshagen, also bids for the princess' hand with offer of a loan. XV.—Lorry tells Lorry that she belongs to the princess while she is seated on the throne. XVI.—Lorry dashes the glass from his hand. Challenge to a duel. Lorenz assassinates. Lorry charged with the crime. XVII.—Princess Yvette commits Lorry to prison. All Graustark rejoices at the death of Lorenz. XVIII.—Lorry escapes. The princess helps Lorry to escape. Disguised as a soldier, he conducts him to a monastery. XX.—Asphain offers Graustark grace on the loan if Lorry is executed before the capture of Lorenz. XXI.—Lorry escapes. The princess and Lorry try to secret consultation. Quinnox claims to have captured Lorry and brought him to the princess. XXV and XXVI.—Lorry surrenders to Asphain.

Yvette begged Bolarov to continue to make the court his home while in Graustark, and the old prince responded with the declaration that he would remain long enough to sign and approve the new covenant at least. Before stepping from the throne Yvette called in low tones to Lorry, a pretty flush mantling her cheek:

"Will you come to me in half an hour?"

"For my reward?" he asked eagerly.

"Ach!" she cried softly, reprovingly. Count Halfont's face took on a troubled expression as he caught the swift communication in their eyes. After all, she was a princess.

She passed from the room beside Halfont, proud and happy in the victory over despair, glorying in the exposure of her heart to the world, her blood tingling and dancing with the joys of anticipation. Lorry and Anguish, the wonder and admiration of all, were given a short but convincing lecture in the hallway. Lords and ladies praised and lauded them, overwhelming them with the homage that comes to the brave. But Gaspon uttered one wish that struck Lorry's warm, leaping heart like a piece of ice.

"Would to God that you were a prince of the realm," said the minister of finance, a look of regret and longing in his eyes. That wish of Gaspon's sent Lorry away with the sharp steel of desolation torturing intensely as it drove deeper and deeper the reawakened pangs of uncertainty. There still remained the fatal distance between him and the object of his heart's desire.

He accompanied Captain Quinnox to his quarters, where he made himself presentable before starting for the enchanted apartment in the far end of the castle. Love and fear combined to give him strength; from his eyes fled the hopeless look, from his brain the doubt, from his blood the chill.

"Quinnox, give me your hand; don't mind the blood! You have been my friend, and you have served her almost to the death. I injured and would have killed you in that cell, but it was not in anger. Will you be my friend in all that is to follow?"

"She has said that she loves you," said the captain, returning the hand clasp. "I am at your service as well as hers."

A few moments later Lorry was in her presence. What was said or done during the half hour that passed between his entrance and the moment that brought them side by side from the room need not be told. That the interview had had its serious side was plain. The troubled, anxious eyes of the girl and the rebellious, dogged air of the man told of a conflict now only in abeyance.

"I will never give you up," he said as they came from the door. A wistful gleam flickered in her eyes, but she did not respond in words.

Near the head of the stairway an anted group of persons lingered. Harry Anguish was in the center, and the Countess Dagmar was directly in front of him, looking up with sparkling eyes and parted lips. The Count and Countess Halfont, Gaspon, the Baron Dangloss, the Duke of Mizro, with other ladies and gentlemen, were being entertained by the gay spirited stranger.

"Here he comes," cried the latter as he caught sight of the approaching couple.

"I am delighted to see you, Harry. You were the friend in need, old man," said Lorry, wringing the other's hand. Yvette gave him her hand, her blue eyes overflowing.

"Go ahead, Countess. It isn't very elegant, but it's the way I said it. How I got next to Gabriel is what she wants to say. Perhaps your highness would like to know all about the affair that ended so tragically. It's very quickly told," said Anguish.

"I am deeply interested," said the princess eagerly.

"Well, in the first place, it was all a bluff," said he coolly.

"A what?" demanded Dagmar.

"Bluff," responded Harry briefly. "American ploys, dear Countess."

"In what respect?" asked Lorry, beginning to understand.

"In all respects. I didn't have the slightest sign of proof against the festive prince."

"Do I understand you to say that you have no evidence against Gabriel?" asked Halfont, dumfounded.

"Not a particle."

"But you said his confederate had confessed," protested Dangloss.

"I didn't know that he had a confederate, and I wasn't sure that he was guilty of the crime," boasted Anguish, complacently enjoying the stupefaction.

"Then why did you say so?" demanded Dangloss, excited beyond measure.

"Oh, I just guessed at it!"

"God save us!" gasped Baron Dangloss, chief of police.

"Guessed at it?" cried Mizro.

"That's it. It was a bold stroke, but it won. Now, I'll tell you this much: I was morally certain that Gabriel killed the prince. There was no way on earth to prove it, however, and I'll admit it was intuition or something of that sort which convinced me. He had tried to abduct the princess, and he was madly jealous of Lorenz. Al though he knew there was to be a duel, he was not certain that Lorenz would lose, so he adopted a clever plan to get rid of two rivals by killing one and raising suspicion on the other. These deductions I made soon after the murder, but, of course, could secure no proof."

"Early this morning at the hotel I made up my mind to denounce him suddenly if I had the chance, risking failure, but hoping for such an exhibition as that which you saw. It was clear to me that he had an accomplice to stand guard while he did the stabbing, but I did not dream it was Berrowag. Lorry's sensational appearance, when I believed him to be far away from here, disturbed me greatly, but it made it all the more necessary that I should take the risk with Gabriel. As I watched him I became absolutely convinced of his guilt. The only way to accuse him was to do it boldly and thoroughly; so I rang in the accomplice and the witness features. You all know how the 'bluff' worked."

"And you had no more proof than this?" asked Dangloss weakly.

"That's all," laughed the delighted strategist.

Dangloss stared at him for a moment, then threw up his hands and walked away, shaking his head, whether in stupefied admiration or utter disbelief no one knew. The others covered Anguish with compliments, and he was more than ever the hero of the day. Such confidence paralyzed the people. The only one who was not overcome with astonishment was his countryman.

"You did it well," he said in an undertone to Anguish—"devilish well!"

"You might at least say I did it to the queen's taste," growled Anguish meaningly.

"Well, then, you did," laughed Lorry. To be Continued.

The Genuine vs. the Counterfeits.

The genuine is always better than a counterfeit, but the truth of this statement is never more forcibly realized or more thoroughly appreciated than when you compare the genuine with the counterfeit.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve with the many counterfeits and worthless substitutes that are on the market. W. S. Lebetter, of Shreveport, La., says:

"After using numerous other remedies without benefit, one box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me."

For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles no remedy is equal to DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve.

DRAVOSBURG BOOKED FOR TWO GAMES

Will Bring a Strong Team Here Hoping to Administer Two Defeats to the Preachers.

The strong Dravosburg team has been booked by Secretary Travis and Manager Reark to do battle with the preachers at West End park next Friday and Saturday. The manager of the Dravosburg aggregation has stated that he will bring his strongest lineup here and expects to administer a double defeat to the locals. Judging from the past performances of the team, it will take the preachers' best playing to prevent this catastrophe.

The lineup of the locals will be about the same as in the games on Labor Day. Morg Winters and Lawrence will likely do the twirling.

Plumbing Bill in Dispute.

Lisbon, September 9.—(Special).—The case of Charles Richardson vs. Wesley Clapsaddle for $50, alleged to be due for the plumbing of a house, was decided in Justice J. M. Dickinson's court yesterday. The plaintiff got judgment for $18.72. Attorney Lodge Riddle for the defendant gave notice of appeal. The claim had been assigned to Richardson by the contractor, Samuel Hoover. LITTLE BUSINESS

DONE BY COUNCIL

The Gas Question Took Up Most of the Time of the City Fathers.

Aside from receiving the report of Solicitor Davidson on his official visit to Ravenna, council transacted but little business at the regular meeting last evening. President Horwell and every member except Johnson, who was unavoidably detained, were present.

The plot of J. T. Smith, who dedicated a certain alley abutting on Ravine street to the city, was accepted, upon the recommendation of the solicitor, who had thoroughly investigated it.

The monthly report of Mayor Weaver was accepted and the members seemed much pleased at the amount of fines and licenses collected. They aggregated $454, making the average since the mayor has been in office considerably over $200.

It was expected that some action would be taken on the garbage question but owing to an overrush the solicitor could not prepare the contract, which was to be signed by the Sanitary Reduction company, and the question was deferred until the next meeting, called for Friday evening.

SOUTH SIDE

ANOTHER WELL

WILL BE DRILLED

Chester Oil And Gas Company Will Again Make a Test of Its Lease.

Arrangements have at last been completed for the beginning of work upon the second well of the Chester Oil & Gas company, and this time it is certain the results will be satisfactory even if the expected big strike is not made.

Negotiations have been on for some time looking to the further development of the 500 acres of promising land in the southerly portion of Hancock county. Within the past two weeks John Webster, one of the more enthusiastic members of the company, has been circulating among his fellows with a view of securing their consent to proceed with the work. This task has been so successful that the contract will be let within a few days.

It has been known that the well put down by Thomas Stewart some time ago was not satisfactory to the company, and this fact has delayed action with reference to the further development of the field. Then the company was informed that Edward Stewart, who is thoroughly conversant with the oil business, would be willing to take up the work where it had been left off. He refused to proceed with the task, however, without the contract calling for more money than had been invested on the previous occasion being forthcoming. On the other hand, Mr. Stewart expressed himself as being willing to put up a bond binding himself to faithfully carry out his part of the agreement.

It is estimated the drillers will need to go down at least 900 feet, and the price quoted by Mr. Stewart is $900. The members of the company are not averse to investing this amount provided the work is satisfactory, which is assured in this case. The well has been located on the William Allison farm, about 800 feet directly south of the old hole, and work will be started within a few days.

STATE CONVENTION OF THE JR. O. U. A. M.

Annual Council at Martinsburg, State Councilor Allison in Attendance.

The state convention of the West Virginia Jr. O. U. A. M. is now well under way at Martinsburg, and is one of the most successful meetings ever held by the organization.

State Councilor O. O. Allison, of Chester, submitted his annual report early in the week and it was enthusiastically received by the delegates. The document shows that the administration of Councilor Allison was the most successful in many years. During the year just ended seven new councils have been instituted, while several old ones were reinstated. The net increase in membership throughout the year was 661. The record made by Mr. Allison has not been equaled by any other state councilor, and in addition to receiving the report with the grateful thanks of the membership, Councilor Allison was highly commended by members of the national council and other high officials.

The election was held yesterday and resulted in the selection of A. J. Frick as state councilor. The gentleman is a prominent resident of Wheeling and will make a good official.

Mr. Allison and the other Chester people who have been in attendance at the convention left for Washington, D. C. today. They will spend several weeks in the east visiting the points of interest and popular resorts.

BULLET OF BURGLAR

Lays Low Aged Citizens at His Home Near Hunting-ton, W. Va.

MADE DESPERATE RESISTANCE

Bloodhounds Trace Fleeing Bandits to River—If Caught Lynching May Follow—Believed Victim Was Followed from City.

Huntington, W. Va., Sept. 9.—Hon. Mordica Williams, late Democratic candidate for congress in the Ninth Kentucky district, was shot by burglars at his home, six miles west of here, and is dying.

Mr. Williams, who is an old citizen, was awakened by the intruders and he sprang from his bed and seizing an old rusty saber from the wall—a saber he had carried during his services in the Confederate army—gave the burglars a desperate battle. Although he was dealt a dozen stunning blows, he pressed on, striking right and left, and succeeded in beating the bandits down the stairway.

A third burglar in the yard, who was evidently on guard, heard the fight within and running to the front door fired two shots, one of which penetrated Mr. Williams' left breast just below the heart. Williams fell. His aged wife, the only other occupant of the home, telephoned for a doctor and gave the alarm.

Bloodhounds from this city were put on the trail of the bandits and traced them to the river, and later found a point where they left a boat on the Ohio side. Officers with bloodhounds are yet on their trail, and if the bandits are caught they will be lynched.

Mr. Williams is nearing 65 years of age and was the founder of the Eastern Kentucky academy, the leading educational institution of the state. He was in this city until a late hour Monday night and many believe that the murderers followed him from here.

Deadwood, S. D., Sept. 9.—The American Mining congress began the actual work of its sixth annual session, interest centering in an address by Hon. Leslie D. Shaw, secretary of the United States treasury. The secretary was given a warm welcome by the delegates, who frequently applauded his statements, and when he finished speaking gave him a rising vote of thanks and three rousing cheers. The congress also unanimously elected him an honorary member and appointed a committee of three to draft resolutions thanking President Roosevelt for his recognition of the congress in sending Secretary Shaw to represent him before it, an engrossed copy to be sent to the president.

A SETTLEMENT WITHOUT

Such Is Now the Possibility in Reference to the Dispute With the Gas Company.

GAS OFFICIALS TO CONFER WITH CITY SOON

As was exclusively detailed in the News Review last evening the citizens and gas consumers of East Liverpool are pleased at the turn in the controversy with the gas corporation so far as it has progressed, and the prospects are the very best for a settlement without the necessity of carrying the matter into court.

City Solicitor George E. Davidson and Councilman Thomas Cannon, who represented the city and the private consumers, returned from Ravenna last evening, and their report to the city council was made at once. The hearing of the application for a restraining order to prevent the gas company from either removing the supply or increasing the rate was to have been heard by Judge Robinson yesterday, but the News Review received the news late in the afternoon that there would be no hearing at present.

Upon the arrival of all the interested parties at Ravenna they were not long in getting together and a conference was agreed upon. Solicitor Davidson reported to the council that the following agreement had been entered into between the two parties:

"For the purpose of providing for a conference with a view to adjusting all matters in dispute, the parties to the foregoing action agree that the application for injunction shall be continued until September 21, 1903.

"In the interim the Ohio Valley Gas company agrees that it will not shut off its gas from its consumers who have paid their July bills and that any discount that any consumer is entitled to by tender on or before September 10, 1903, he shall likewise be entitled to if tendered on or before September 21, 1903.

"It is further agreed that said conference shall be held at East Liverpool, Ohio, on September —, 1903, at — o'clock.

"Dated September 8, 1903.

ANXIOUS TO LOCATE
HIS MISSING WIFE

Herman Feistler Hears That His Spouse is in Pennsylvania With Another Man.

The failure of his wife to return home after unceremoniously deserting him and their two children on the 14th day of July is causing Herman Feistler, a respectable German, of Walnut street, considerable worry, and he has instituted proceedings to locate her.

For the second time he reported the matter at the city hall last evening. He stated that his wife was located a few weeks ago by him at Butler, Pa., where she was keeping house for Louis Stroble, an insurance agent who formerly worked in this city. After being away from home for sometime the wife wrote Feistler that she was attending some sick relatives at Jenneate, Pa. This Feistler, says was untrue, and that she has been living all the time with Stroble.

Feistler states that he does not care as far as he is concerned whether she returns or not, it is the children who need her attention. He wants Chief Wyman to locate her and bring her back, but the chief feels that Pennsylvania authorities should be applied to.

Mrs. Feistler is the second wife of the deserted man and it is the second time that he has been played with in the same manner, his first wife having deserted him a few years after their marriage.

ANXIETY OVER
THE BOND SALE

City Officials Think the Pittsburg
Concern Doesn't Want
the $93,000.

DELAY IS UNEXPLAINED

The belief is quite general among the city officials that J. R. Williams & Co., of Pittsburg, do not intend to buy the $93,000 worth of bonds over which there has been endless comment for several months. It is thought that the company has an object in deferring matters.

At the regular meeting of council held last evening a member asked Auditor Davidson if he had heard anything favorable from the company and he replied that he had not. He received several communications from the concern last week, and was to have heard from it again before this. The reason for the delay cannot be figured.

As a result of the uneasiness being felt by council and other it is probable that Auditor Davidson will be instructed to get a definite statement from the company as to when it will take the bonds and turn over the money. If he cannot get a favorable report council will very likely let it be known that the bonds are for sale again and receive more bids. One grievous error made by council was when it accepted the bid of Williams & Co. without demanding a bond. Had this been done, the city would be much better off financially if the company does not take the bonds.

It is certainly expedient that council take immediate steps to get the money for those bonds. There are debts too numerous to enumerate that must be paid, and there is not a penny to pay them with. Among them is the cost of

MRS. KULOW SAYS THAT SHE IS TAKING A PLEASURE TRIP

The many creditors of Mrs. J. A. Kulow, proprietress of a grocery store, Eighth street, West End, for a couple of years, continue in mourning over her prolonged absence. Some of them have instituted proceedings to recover the goods sold to the woman and numerous cases will be set for hearings by local justices during the next few days. She has written to a friend that she is on a pleasure trip.

Three suits were filed against Mrs. Kulow yesterday. Faulk Bros. are suing in the court of Squire McLane for $16.50, which amount they claim is due them for feed. W. P. Davidson, of Steubenville, sues for $89 in the court of Squire Rose for general merchandise, and George Arner, of Chester, sues for nearly $100 in the court of Squire McCarron. It is considered doubtful if the trio above named will be able to recover the amounts they

OHIO NOT LIKELY TO BE REPRESENTED

No Regiment Will Be Sent to the Government Maneuvers
in Kentucky.

THE BEST SHOWING MADE

At State Encampment Was By the
Eight Which Would Be Glad to Go.
Merger of All Ohio Wholesale Groceries Proposed.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, September 9.—Governor Nash inclines to the view that an Ohio regiment will not be sent to the government maneuvers at West Point, Ky. They will be held from September 26 to October 14, and each state is entitled to representation. The governor thinks that the Ohio soldiers would not care to go when they learn that they would only receive pay at the rate of $13 per month, the regular government allowance. Some time ago it was announced that General Charles Dick had arranged for a representation of the Ohio National Guard at these maneuvers, but thus far no steps have been taken to carry out this course. It was generally understood that the regiment making the best showing at the recent encampment would be selected to go to Kentucky, and according to information received from authentic sources competent military judges picked the Eighth regiment as the finest from all standpoints. The regiment easily excelled in drilling and was the only command completely equipped in the regulation uniforms. The uniformity of the regiment as to dress was generally commented upon. It would seem if a regiment is sent it would be the Eighth and if there is any deviation from the original announcement by General Dick, keen disappointment will be felt by the officers of the Eighth, who are anxious to take the trip. A tacit promise was given that the regiment making the best record would be sent, and the Eighth officers want to see it fulfilled.

Figures given out from the adjutant general's office indicate that the recent National Guard encampment cost about $75,000. Division Commissary Colonel Harry Freese, of Canton, kept the subsistence expenses down to $16,760.40. The per diem of the mounted officers, paid by the national government, amounted to a little over $9,000. The per diem of other officers and enlisted men amounted to a little over $14,000. This the state pays.

A meeting will be held in this city today having for its object the forming of a merger of all the wholesale grocery interests of the state. The projectors are F. L. and W. M. Letts, of Chicago, who, aided by E. E. Dow, of Toledo, one of the leading wholesalers of the state, have been at work on the scheme for the past six months. All the wholesale grocers have been requested to attend or to send representatives with authority to act. If organized, the merger will be known as the Ohio Grocery company, with headquarters probably at Columbus. There are 110 wholesale grocery firms in the state, and 15 have practically agreed to go into the company. The majority have not committed themselves on the proposition, but are expected to be represented at the meeting. The Alliance Grocery company, of Alliance, is said to be one of the firms which have already agreed to join the movement.

Charles P. Salen, of Cleveland, Tom Johnson's personal representative, has been made chairman of the Democratic state executive committee and will manage the fall campaign. Hon. Anthony Howells, of Massillon, has been made the Eighteenth district representative on the committee. Chairman Salen will appoint a committee on meetings and speakers comprising one member from each county. Headquarters will not be moved from Columbus. It is thought probable that Johnson and Clarke will speak in Columbiana county. The Democratic campaign from all indication will be prosecuted very energetically and Chairman Dick has issued a warning against lack of confidence and over-confidence on the part of the Republicans. This is the greatest danger, he says.

The receipts from visitors at the penitentiary last week were about $3,500, the largest for any fair week yet. The receipts last year were about $2,100.

THOUGHT HE HAD THE SMALLPOX

A Stranger Who Was Ill Caused
Consternation at City
Hall.

TRUSTEES CARE FOR HIM

His face, neck and entire body completely covered with blotches, resembling much the marks of small pox, dark circles under his eyes and trembling from head to foot, Walter Smith, aged 28, straggled into the city hall shortly after noon today and applied for a place where he could receive medical attention. The general appearance of the man was so bad that for a moment great excitement prevailed at the building.

Smith said that he had been working for several months on the Van-Fossen farm, a few miles north of the city, and that he was turned away a few days ago owing to his sickness. The people for whom he worked thought him sick with small pox and ordered him to depart. He went from there to a farm back of Wellsville and worked a couple of days when he was sent away again. He walked to Wellsville yesterday and applied to the mayor of that city for aid but he was heartlessly turned away and he continued his journey to this city. Arriving this morning he went to several places but was received coldly everywhere and as a last resort he found his way to the city hall.

Sanitary Policeman Burgess examined the man carefully and pronounced his affliction a severe attack of rash together with blood poisoning. He was told to go to the township trustees. Smith was about the dirtiest looking individual that has been seen in the city in years. From his appearance one would have taken him to be at least 45 years of age. He says he has lived in the state of Ohio all his life and that his parents died when he was but two years old. The trustees will likely take care of him.

Lisbon, Sept. 9.—(Special).—A large barn on the Edward Starr farm near the Beaver church, 5 1/2 miles from Lisbon was fired by lightning at 6 o'clock last evening and totally destroyed with all its contents, of hay and grain and farming tools. There was no insurance. The contents belonged to John Lykauf, the tenant.

Suspicious Conduct Leads to Arrest.

BUSINESS MAN FLEES
FROM PARKERSBURG, W. VA.,
WITH PRETTY YOUNG WOMAN

Creditors With Large Claims Are in Mourning—
Couple Came to This City.

Another chapter in a sensational bankruptcy case at Parkersburg, in which one of the wealthiest and most highly respected business men of that city went to the wall and left creditors, who never once entertained a thought of his financial condition, to sing for thousands of dollars, has been added by the flight of the man with a well known woman, also of Parkersburg, to this city. The name of the bankrupt is J. M. Stone, who was the senior member of the Stone & Gates Lumber company, which concern did the largest business of any firm in that section of the country for years. Of his flight to East Liverpool the Ripley, W. Va., Herald says:

"Stone is supposed to be accompanied by a woman, Mattie Reese, formerly a dining room girl at the Commercial Hotel, and from Racy, Ritchie county, who is said to have been the mistress of a Parkersburg home, presumably kept up by Stone, for a year or two. She is said to have disposed of a $1500 house, last week, realizing about $600, and left Parkersburg on a north bound Ohio river train," telling the conductor she was going to East Liverpool and checked her baggage for some point in Ohio, where she was probably joined by Stone, who may have gone via Cumberland and Pittsburg. She had also disposed of $300 worth of household goods at $65. It is not believed that it was fascination of the woman, who is generally regarded as attractive, that lured John Stone from home, friends and business, but believed that, realizing that financial embarrassment from his profligacy was imminent, and not caring to face his father-in-law, D. K. Hood, who had backed him unlimitedly since he became a member of the family, and other relatives whose confidence he had betrayed, he had decided some time before on flight, and will probably soon weary of the woman and spurn her."

Supt. Brown, of the East Liverpool bridge, stated to a reporter of the News Review this morning that he had known Stone for years and that there was not a man in Parkersburg who had the confidence of the people of that city more than Stone. He also stated that the case was the greatest surprise that has been sprung on Parkersburg people in a decade.

Inquiry was made at the several hotels of the city to ascertain whether or not Stone and the Reese woman had been registered at any of them during the past few days, but nothing could be learned more than the clerk is one of the hostleries remembered of a couple answering the description of the pair being at the hotel on Saturday night. Their names were not registered Stone and Reese, however, and if the couple they are sailing under fictitious names.

Lisbon, September 9.—(Special).—A strike of the 200 or 300 Italian laborers employed on the Ft. Wayne railroad at Columbiana was adjusted last evening and the men resumed work today, having been idle but one day. The men received $1.50 per day and objected to a cut of 10 a day. The matter was settled by the company agreeing to allow the wages to remain at $1.50.

To Save Her Sight.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

TRADE CONDITIONS.

During the last week the crockery business in New York waterrooms has been rather quiet, but not unseasonable. The cold, rainy days and the yacht races had, of course, some effect in curtailing the demand, but just at this time of the year, the trade generally experiences a waiting market, says the Commercial. Most of the buyers have not yet returned from their vacations and the bustle incident to fall business will not start in until next week. There are, however, bright prospects for increasing trade during the remainder of the year.

Advises from the pottery centers report that orders are arriving quite regularly, although there is plenty of room for improvement. All the potteries are now in operation and there are enough orders on hand to keep things moving. The traveling men are on the road, sizing up the situation in the various localities and pushing their new production. They generally report good prospects and trade conditions.

The dullness shown in the domestic pottery line is also reflected to a greater or less extent in foreign wares, but the latter are holding their own in anticipation of a heavy demand a little later.

MINERVA NOTES.

John Castello has left for a few weeks' visit in Salem.

Elmer McDewitt, Fred Owens, E. Wooliscroft, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Clark, Miss Amelia Kell and O. Boles visited with friends in East Liverpool over Sunday.

William Malcolm and Ben Luke stopped a short time in town Tuesday evening on their way to Carrollton, where they are employed in the pottery.

Mrs. John Goddard is spending a few days with friends in Wellsville.

THE WEATHER.

Ohio—Fair in west, showers in east portion; cooler in west portion; Thursday fair; fresh southwest to north-west winds.

Western Pennsylvania—Showers; Thursday probably fair; fresh southwest to northwest winds.

West Virginia—Showers and cooler, Thursday fair.

Dan Cronin, of the Salem China company, was a business visitor in town Monday.

George Wyllie was in Liverpool the first of the week on business.

The Minerva China company is at present running almost in full and prospects of a good fall trade. The line of ware that is being made is quite fine and far beyond expectations.

INTEREST AROUSED.

The interest manifested in the celebration of Labor day this year was so pronounced among the pottery locals that the result is already being felt in more ways than one. The organizations which held meetings last night were characterized by more enthusiasm on the part of the members than has been known for months. It is expected that the meetings will be better attended and more interesting for a long time to come. Officers and members are taking up the work with renewed vigor and there will undoubtedly be a noticeable change for the better in every local in the city.

CLAY MINERS STRIKE.

The clay miners employed at the Great Western and Little Giant mines at Toronto are out on a strike because the operators would not grant their demand of two cents a ton more for clay mined. The present scale is 20 cents and the men ask 22. About 20 men are affected. The operators claim they will not grant the increase. Several of the striking miners have left town, having secured work at other mines.

NOW AT TORONTO.

Will Witham, formerly of this city, is one of the victims of the change at the Thomas plant, Lisbon, from general ware to electric porcelain. Mr. Witham was in the city for Labor day and was the guest of Will Devon, of Thompson avenue, leaving this morning for Toronto, where he has secured a situation with the American China company. Before going to Lisbon Mr. Witham was the foreman of the plant at Canonsburg.

THOMPSON'S BUSY.

Last week was a busy one at the Thompson, with the exception of the decorating department, which had only the usual amount to do. In several departments the operatives were compelled to work overtime to turn out the ware as fast as it was needed to fill imperative orders. The prospects are bright for a good fall trade with the Thompson.

Federal Grand Jury Returns
Seven More Indictments
in Postal Cases.

BEAVERS ARRESTED IN NEW YORK

Several Cases Yet Remain to Be Disposed of—Warrants Out for Indicted Individuals—Leopold Stern Located Across the Border.

Washington, Sept. 9.—After deliberating for several weeks over a mass of documents submitted by the postoffice inspectors, the federal grand jury returned seven indictments in postal cases, involving six different persons. All the indictments were kept off the public record and both the officials of the district attorney's office and of the postoffice department refused to divulge names or details of the indictments until the parties indicted are arrested. The identity of the indicted individuals thus was left a matter of conjecture. It is expected that arrests will occur today and that the postoffice department will have some announcement to make during the forenoon.

The grand jury's action probably marks the beginning of the end of the investigation that has been in progress since the middle of last March. Voluminous evidence has been laid before the grand jury as the result of the inquiry, and while the present report of the jury disposes of most of the cases, there yet remain several cases to be passed upon. When the latter are disposed of, according to Postmaster General Payne, the investigation is concerned, will be at an end for all practical purposes. Several of the persons indicted live outside of Washington. They will be arrested as soon as bench warrants can be served.

Postmaster General Payne and Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Eristow received word of the grand jury's action after that body reported and subsequently they had a long conference on the subject. Both officials refused to divulge details pending official notification of arrests. Two other important events occurred in the postal inquiry.

Vexed at Premature Publicity. Leopold Stern, the Baltimore contractor, who disappeared from Baltimore before he could be arrested or an indictment returned July 31 last was located at Toronto, and the long delayed surrender of George W. Bevers, the former head of the salary and allowance division, to the New York authorities took place. The postal officials have been searching for Stern ever since he disappeared and finally received word from the Canadian authorities that he is in Toronto. They expressed considerable vation at the premature publicity of his whereabouts on account of the problem of extradition that now confronts the government and the possibility of his making good his escape now that the information has become public in advance of the readiness of the authorities to effect his arrest. Beavers' arrest created no surprise for the government all along has kept advised of his whereabouts, despite reports to the contrary.

Stern Will Put Up a Fight. Toronto, Sept. 9.—Mr. Stern declined to be seen when a reporter called at his home, and referred all callers to his attorney. Mr. Stern's lawyer said that his client was ready to appear before an extradition judge and prove his innocence, which is interpreted as a declaration that extradition proceedings will be fought to the end. He will not leave the city, the attorney said, and if an extradition warrant is secured Mr. Stern will at once leave for Washington.

RETURNS TO SAGAMORE HILL

Roosevelt Receives Call from Sound Money League—Presented With Campaign Badge.

Oyster Bay, Sept. 9.—President Roosevelt returned to Sagamore Hill rather wearied from the effects of his hurried trip to Syracuse, where he opened the state fair. Extra precautions had been taken at Hoboken to prevent suspicious persons from molesting the president.

During the afternoon the president received a call from Colonel John L. Shepherd, president of the New York branch of the Commercial Travelers' Sound Money league, and a committee of the organization.

Colonel Shepherd, as spokesman of the committee, extended to the president an invitation to a dinner to be given in New York on any date he might name. The president told his callers that he could not go to New York, but he would be glad to attend the dinner if it could be held in Washington. It was agreed that the dinner should be given in Washington in the late fall or early winter. The committee presented to the president the handsome campaign badge of the organization for next year. It is probably the first 1904 campaign badge is used.

Major Joseph D. Cunningham, of Harrison county, O., called on the president to invite him to attend on Oct. 13 the unveiling of a monument erected to the memory of the late President McKinley on the battlefield of Antietam. The monument is located on the spot where Major McKinley stopped to eat his supper on the night following the great battle. President Roosevelt was unable to give a definite answer to the invitation, but promised Major Cunningham to let him know within a few days.

CROWDED GRAND STAND FALLS

Twenty-Four Injured, Three Probably Fatally—Ambulances Convey Wounded to Hospital.

Leavenworth, Kan., Sept. 9.—A grand stand erected on a knoll on the Fort Leavenworth reservation gave way during a sham battle by regular troops, injuring 24 persons. Many received broken legs. Fully 1,500 people were crowded upon it.

There was a heavy artillery duel with siege guns. Three battalions of infantry were using black powder. Some one announced that the cavalry were emerging from a ravine to charge. People on the grand stand jumped up to see them through the smoke and the entire stand went down with a crash. The utmost confusion followed, accompanied by shrieks of victims. Many were pinned down under the boards.

The confusion was indescribable until the regular soldiers formed a line and kept all back not injured or caring for those injured. The battle, which was at its height on the opposite side of the road, was called off at once and the soldiers began taking care of the injured. Ambulances were used to convey people to the city hospitals and within an hour after the accident the injured had all been removed. All those injured are alive, but it is believed three will die.

MYSTERY OF CAPTIVE DOG TO BE SOLVED

Held a Prisoner in Chaffinville All Summer; But Will Be Set Free By Officer Fisher.

The mystery of a captive canine is about to be solved through a telephone tip received at the East End fire station this morning. The identity of the person who sent the message could not be learned and in consequence the people will probably never know just whom to praise for their deliverance. The canine has been held a prisoner in some secluded nook in Chaffinville and has been kept in close confinement since early in the summer. Deprived of the companionship of his kindred, the captive has been compelled to amuse himself by communing with the moon, using for this purpose a full and plaintive, though somewhat rasping bark.

Several amateur detectives have endeavored to win renown by solving the mystery, but they failed to find the place or concealment of the poor, forlorn pup. The musings with the moon continued, night after night, but the cries were like those from a ghost, not to be located. People despaired of ever getting to the bottom of the matter and incidentally of getting any sleep of nights, until the unknown sent the tip to the police station this morning. Now it is all off with the dark plot.

It is the opinion of the mysterious person that some marplot from the down yander regions, with a fondness for petit larceny and coon dogs, has purloined the animal and is holding him until the opening of the coon hunting season, which will be along about the first frost. Officer Fisher will invade Chaffinville this afternoon, however, and release the prisoner. The mysterious person described the dog as being a little short in the neck, somewhat cat-banned, narrow across the chest and loins, yellow with black spots, full-throated and large yearning eyes. It is thought that Officer Fisher can easily recognize him from the description.

Firemen Make a Gift.

The happiness of Edward Wilson, who was married Monday to Miss Thelma Copestick, was further increased yesterday when a fine Morris chair was delivered at his pretty home on Pennsylvania avenue. With the chair was an explanatory card, stating that it was a gift from the East Liverpool fire department, and also expressing the heartiest congratulations from the fire laddies and their best wishes for a long and happy life. The gift is a small token of the high esteem the firemen have for Mr. Wilson, who has fought with them at several fierce conflagrations. As a special policeman Mr. Wilson has often been called upon to help the firemen and he has proved to be an efficient and daring worker. His appreciation of the gift can scarcely be stated in words.

Carman-Adair.

Miss Maude Carman and Ross Adair were married last night at Pittsburgh in the presence of the near relatives and friends of the contracting parties. Justice L. W. Carman, of the East End, father of the bride, and her sister, Miss Nellie, a teacher in the Chester schools, were present. The bride is a charming and talented young lady and has a host of friends in the East End. The groom is a prominent young business man, whose home is at Derwent, O.

Go Prepared.

In preparing for your summer outing a little forethought may save you no end of trouble. Mr. John H. Masly, a dry goods merchant, of Bellevue, R. I., while packing an outfit for camping a few weeks on Narragansett Bay, put in a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for emergency use. The second day in camp his little boy was taken with cramp colic. The first dose of this remedy gave relief and the second dose effected a cure. Think of the pain and suffering this boy would have had to endure without this remedy at hand to relieve him. Such cases often result fatally. For sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

TRUCK VERSION OF TROUBLE

Says Christians Attacked Mussulmen at Beirut—Four Persons Injured.

Washington, Sept. 8.—A cablegram from the Turkish foreign office to Chelki Bey, the Turkish minister here, gives the following version of the trouble at Beirut Sunday, reported by Admiral Cotton in his dispatch to the navy department:

Some Christians of the city of Beirut attacked four Mussulmen and during the melee which followed four persons were injured. Three of these were soldiers. Two persons are dead, one of whom is a soldier.

The minister called on Secretary Hay during the day and gave him the contents of his dispatch.

Later the minister received a dispatch from Constantinople characterizing as "absolutely false" the published reports that there was no security in Constantinople and that Mussulmen and the imperial troops were responsible for massacres and the setting fire to houses in Roumelia. This dispatch was in reply to one sent by the minister calling the attention of his government to the reports of this character.

Another dispatch says that 22 Bulgarian brigands were killed in the vicinity of Resne (Monastir) and 40 others on a farm at Florina. A band of brigands entrenched on a small elevation at Lapschinek was dispersed.

Don't delay a minute. Cholera infantum, dysentery, diarrhoea come suddenly. Only safe plan is to have Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry always on hand.

Yellow clothes are unsightly. Keep them white with Red Cross Bag Blue. All grocers sell large package, 5 cents.

CURES KIDNEY AND BLADDER TROUBLES, Rheumatism, All Diseases of the Blood, Backache, Nervous Dyspepsia, Clear the Complexion and Aid Digestion.

Give you a good appetite, renew life cells in young and old. Permanently restore youthful vigor and vitality. They tone up the whole system and make you feel like a new person. No remedy in the world to equal them. Take a few Nervan Tablets and note the wonderful effect.

ALCOHOL IN ALL LIQUID KIDNEY AND RHEUMATIC REMEDIES CONDEMNED THEM.

An ignorantly compounded remedy, containing alcohol, as nearly as kidney remedies do, will stimulate them so violently that an inflammation will be set up and instead of being merely lazy the kidneys will become diseased. Alcohol congeals the kidneys with blood and retards their activity. There is no Alcohol in Nervan Tablets to interfere with the removal of all harmful sediment from the body. The Tablets soothe and heal the kidneys when they are irritated and inflamed. They cure the kidney diseases that make you dizzy, restless, sleepless and irritable; that make you pass water often during the day and night; that cause rheumatism, catarrh of the bladder, pain in the back, joints and muscles; that make your head ache and indigestion, stomach and liver trouble, and a sallow, yellow complexion.

No matter how many other remedies you may have tried and found useless, remember the great modern remedy, Nervan Tablets.

It will not do to conclude, because the natural gas companies have staved off a hearing in the injunction proceedings for 10 days that they are ready to obey the city council and acknowledge the right very plainly vested in the city by the Ohio statutes to fix the rate at which gas must be sold. However, the companies have signed an agreement to provide for "a conference with a view of adjusting all matters in dispute," and naturally the city and the gas consumers feel greatly encouraged. Evidently the gas purveyors are hoping to make a compromise. We do not believe they will find much disposition on the part of council or the citizens to accept any terms other than those which are set down in the recently enacted ordinance fixing the price of natural gas at the figure which prevailed before the attempted raise. It will be an easy matter for the gas combination to adjust the questions in dispute upon that basis, and a difficult task to adjust it otherwise. It is quite evident that the gas people see that the Ohio law is something which it will not be easy to evade or get around.

It is well enough to listen to what they have to say, though it is difficult to understand why they could not have had their explanations and excuses ready earlier. But a compromise that would increase rates would be a most unpopular and most unjust one. The city will hear the gas company, but it will stand up for its rights under the law and the ordinance. Preparations for a legal fight should be kept up; the people are not in the mood for surrendering.

Chester is to be congratulated upon its prospects for improved schools. Not only has the central building been enlarged, providing light and cheerful rooms for an increased number of pupils, but the school course has been revised and the schools thoroughly graded, and at the opening of the term next week the young town will not only have a well-attended high school, but one that is well organized and well equipped. The Chester school board and Prof. Miller, the superintendent, appear thoroughly awake to the school needs of the town and doing their best to supply them. From the present outlook Chester, though in its infancy as a town, proposes to be fully abreast of older and larger communities in all that relates to educational work. Chester is starting wisely. The money expended in the betterment of her schools is the very best investment she could possibly make. A town that provides liberally for education is bound to prosper.

The horrors of Turkish misgovernment should be an object lesson to the world. How long must the massacre of Christians and natives be suffered to continue before civilized governments are persuaded that it is their duty to take a hand in restoring order?

A New York doctor says that eating is only a habit. So it is, and one of the most expensive. But the world has become hopelessly addicted to it and will not be in a hurry to take his advice and change to a diet of air and water.

Russia and Austria are insisting on the porte restoring order in Macedonia, and the Turk is doing it in the old way—by wholesale slaughter, thus removing disorder by removing the population.

Seven more indictments in connection with the postal frauds. Democratic statesmen who expected to see the guilty escaping are again reminded that that is not the Republican way.

The Salvation army will undertake missionary work in the pistol and feud belt in Kentucky, and there are few spots that need it more.

What kind of a message was it which informed the Crisis that the petitions for enjoining the gas companies were

BEEF, IRON AND WINE.

When you buy a preparation of beef, iron and wine, be sure you get a good one. Never take that cheap stuff which you can sometimes buy under the name of beef, iron and wine. We prepare a beef, iron and wine which is composed of the richest, purest extract of beef, a good quality of sherry wine and the most digestible form of iron. Beef is nutritious; wine stimulates, and iron is a recognized blood maker. This is a splendid tonic, containing the three elements which every tonic should possess. Price, 50c. per bottle. AT THE THEATRE

"Judged Guilty" was presented by the Dilger-Cornell company at the opera house last evening to a good sized and very appreciative audience. Tonight the sterling melodrama, "Enemies for Life," will occupy the boards. This company is furnishing excellent attractions at low prices. The specialties between the acts are excellent. The play last night was well staged and well acted, every part being in capable hands. The company is making a decidedly favorable impression.

The same Baltimore that gave the world an Edwin Booth, a John Wilkes Booth, a Stuart Robson and a host of other noted stage names, was the birthplace of Caroline Rohr, that clever emotional actress, who is to appear in the title role of "Tess of the D'Urbervilles" at the Grand opera house Monday evening, September 14. Here is a young woman who has played as many parts during her short career as generally falls to the lot of an old-timer.

SCROFULA A DISEASE WE INHERIT.

Scrofula manifests itself in many ways. Swelling of the glands of the neck and throat, Catarrh, weak eyes, white swelling, offensive sores and abscesses, skin eruptions, loss of strength and weakness in muscles and joints. It is a miserable disease and traceable in almost every instance to some family blood taint. Scrofula is bred in the bone, is transmitted from parent to child, the seeds are planted in infancy and unless the blood is purged and purified and every atom of the taint removed Scrofula is sure to develop at some period in your life.

150 South 5th Street. MRS. RUTH BERKLY, Salina, Kan.

WHEELING WILL REMAIN IN THE CENTRAL LEAGUE

Team Draws Well Regardless of Its Standing And Is Now Making a Great Record.

Wheeling has proved the best paying city in the Central league and will be retained next year in spite of the talk to the contrary. The only objection to the city of stogies has been its great distance from the other cities of the league, but the good attendance at the games, regardless of the standing of the team, more than offsets the objection.

The Wheeling team is making a record that probably will not be excelled by any team in any league. After half the season below the .500 mark, the stogies struck a fast clip and have been showing the way for the other teams. Leaders and tail enders have looked alike and with the three games on Labor day they have won 22 out of the last 24 and seem to be safely entrenched in fourth place.

That the stogies have some strong players is apparent from the fact that managers of teams in the major organizations are after them. Catcher Shannon was recently released to the St. Louis Americans and has been taking his regular turn in the box. He caught a nice game Sunday and will make good.

In the recent games Miller, the popular southpaw who played here with the preachers this season, has been winning his share. He has already shown sufficient ability to warrant the Wheeling papers to assert that he will be retained for next season.

SPORTING MISCELLANY.

Lawrence was passed to first four consecutive times by Pitcher Good in the game at the West End park Monday morning.

The Southern league is said to be the fastest of the minors and both Americans and National league managers are looking to it for youngsters for next season.

Pittsburg's great winning streak, 15 games since August 21, without a defeat, was broken on Labor day, when Chicago put it on them. The Pirates have the record in the National for consecutive wins.

All of Cleveland's regular twirlers, Joss, Bernhard and Moore, are in the hospital and the youngsters recently signed are doing the twirling. They are Glendon, Killian and Stovall, and they have been winning a majority of the games.

Will Bring a Strong Team Here Hoping to Administer Two Defeats to the Preachers.

The strong Dravosbury team has been booked by Secretary Travis and Manager Reark to do battle with the preachers at West End park next Friday and Saturday. The manager of the Dravosbury aggregation has stated that he will bring his strongest lineup here and expects to administer a double defeat to the locals. Judging from the past performances of the team, it will take the preachers' best playing to prevent this catastrophe. The lineup of the locals will be about the same as in the games on Labor Day. LITTLE BUSINESS

DONE BY COUNCIL

The Gas Question Took Up Most of the Time of the City Fathers.

Aside from receiving the report of Solicitor Davidson on his official visit to Ravenna, council transacted but little business at the regular meeting last evening. President Horwell and every member except Johnson, who was unavoidably detained, were present.

The plat of J. T. Smith, who dedicated a certain alley abutting on Ravine street to the city, was accepted, upon the recommendation of the solicitor, who had thoroughly investigated it.

The monthly report of Mayor Weaver was accepted and the members seemed much pleased at the amount of fines and licenses collected. They aggregated $454, making the average since the mayor has been in office considerably over $300.

It was expected that some action would be taken on the garbage question but owing to an overrush the solicitor could not prepare the contract, which was to be signed by the Sanitary Reduction company, and the question was deferred until the next meeting, called for Friday evening.

SOUTH SIDE

ANOTHER WELL

WILL BE DRILLED

Chester Oil And Gas Company Will Again Make a Test of Its Lease.

Arrangements have at last been completed for the beginning of work upon the second well of the Chester Oil & Gas company, and this time it is certain the results will be satisfactory even if the expected big strike is not made.

Negotiations have been on for some time looking to the further development of the 500 acres of promising land in the southerly portion of Hancock county. Within the past two weeks John Webster, one of the more enthusiastic members of the company, has been circulating among his fellows with a view of securing their consent to proceed with the work. This task has been so successful that the contract will be let within a few days.

It has been known that the well put down by Thomas Stewart some time ago was not satisfactory to the company, and this fact has delayed action with reference to the further development of the field. Then the company was informed that Edward Stewart, who is thoroughly conversant with the oil business, would be willing to take up the work where it had been left off. He refused to proceed with the task, however, without the contract calling for more money than had been invested on the previous occasion being forthcoming. On the other hand, Mr. Stewart expressed himself as being willing to put up a bond binding himself to faithfully carry out his part of the agreement.

It is estimated the drillers will need to go down at least 900 feet, and the price quoted by Mr. Stewart is $900. The members of the company are not averse to investing this amount provided the work is satisfactory, which is assured in this case. The well has been located on the William Allison farm, about 800 feet directly south of the old hole, and work will be started within a few days.

STATE CONVENTION OF THE JR. O. U. A. M.

Annual Council at Martinsburg, State Councilor Allison in Attendance.

The state convention of the West Virginia Jr. O. U. A. M. is now well under way at Martinsburg, and is one of the most successful meetings ever held by the organization.

State Councilor O. O. Allison, of Chester, submitted his annual report early in the week and it was enthusiastically received by the delegates. The document shows that the administration of Councilor Allison was the most successful in many years. During the year just ended seven new councils have been instituted, while several old ones were reinstated. The net increase in membership throughout the year was 661. The record made by Mr. Allison has not been equaled by any other state councilor, and in addition to receiving the report with the grateful thanks of the membership, Councilor Allison was highly commended by members of the national council and other high officials.

The election was held yesterday and resulted in the selection of A. J. Frick as state councilor. The gentleman is a prominent resident of Wheeling and will make a good official.

Mr. Allison and the other Chester people who have been in attendance at the convention left for Washington, D. C., today. They will spend several weeks in the east visiting the points of interest and popular resorts.

Bloodhounds Trace Fleeing Bandits

to River—If Caught Lynching May

Follow—Believed Victim Was Followed from City.

Huntington, W. Va., Sept. 9.—Hon. Mordica Williams, late Democratic candidate for congress in the Ninth Kentucky district, was shot by burglars at his home, six miles west of here, and is dying.

Mr. Williams, who is an old citizen, was awakened by the intruders and he sprang from his bed and seizing an old rusty saber from the wall—a saber he had carried during his services in the Confederate army—gave the burglars a desperate battle. Although he was dealt a dozen stunning blows, he pressed on, striking right and left, and succeeded in beating the bandits down the stairway.

A third burglar in the yard, who was evidently on guard, heard the fight within and running to the front door fired two shots, one of which penetrated Mr. Williams' left breast just below the heart. Williams fell. His aged wife, the only other occupant of the home, telephoned for a doctor and gave the alarm.

Bloodhounds from this city were put on the trail of the bandits and traced them to the river, and later found a point where they left a boat on the Ohio side. Officers with bloodhounds are yet on their trail, and if the bandits are caught they will be lynched.

Mr. Williams is nearing 65 years of age and was the founder of the Eastern Kentucky academy, the leading educational institution of the state. He was in this city until a late hour Monday night and many believe that the murderers followed him from here.

Shaw Addresses Mining Congress.

Deadwood, S. D., Sept. 9.—The American Mining congress began the actual work of its sixth annual session, interest centering in an address by Hon. Leslie D. Shaw, secretary of the United States treasury. The secretary was given a warm welcome by the delegates, who frequently applauded his statements, and when he finished speaking gave him a rising vote of thanks and three rousing cheers. The congress also unanimously elected him an honorary member and appointed a committee of three to draft resolutions thanking President Roosevelt for his recognition of the congress in sending Secretary Shaw to represent him before it, an engrossed copy to be sent to the president.

A SETTLEMENT WITHOUT GOING INTO THE COURTS

Such Is Now the Possibility in Reference to the Dispute With the Gas Company.

GAS OFFICIALS TO CONFER WITH CITY SOON

As was exclusively detailed in the News Review last evening the citizens and gas consumers of East Liverpool are pleased at the turn in the controversy with the gas corporation so far as it has progressed, and the prospects are the very best for a settlement without the necessity of carrying the matter into court.

City Solicitor George E. Davidson and Councilman Thomas Cannon, who represented the city and the private consumers, returned from Ravenna last evening, and their report to the city council was made at once. The hearing of the application for a restraining order to prevent the gas company from either removing the supply or increasing the rate was to have been heard by Judge Robinson yesterday, but the News Review received the news late in the afternoon that there would be no hearing at present.

Upon the arrival of all the interested parties at Ravenna they were not long in getting together and a conference was agreed upon. Solicitor Davidson reported to the council that the following agreement had been entered into between the two parties:

"For the purpose of providing for a conference with a view to adjusting all matters in dispute, the parties to the foregoing action agree that the application for injunction shall be continued until September 21, 1903.

"In the interim the Ohio Valley Gas company agrees that it will not shut off its gas from its consumers who have paid their July bills and that any discount that any consumer is entitled to by tender on or before September 10, 1903, he shall likewise be entitled to if tendered on or before September 21, 1903.

"It is further agreed that said conference shall be held at East Liverpool, Ohio, on September 9, 1903, at 10 o'clock.

"Dated September 8, 1903.

PRIMARY ELECTIONS UNDER DISCUSSION

COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO DRAFT NEW SYSTEM MEETS.

Eleven Townships Represented at the Conference Now in Progress at Lisbon.

Lisbon, September 9.—(Special).—The committee appointed by County Chairman J. S. McNutt to investigate and report on the merits of some system other than the present to make Republican county nominations, is in session here today. When the chairman, R. N. Chamberlain, called the meeting to order shortly before noon, 11 townships were represented as follows:

R. N. Chamberlain, Unity; Edward Thomas, Butler; George B. Harvey, Center; L. D. Van Fossen, Elkrun; L. H. Copeland, Franklin; W. M. Travis, Madison; J. C. Billingsley, Middleton; A. R. Dow, Perry; N. J. Coulson, Hanover; R. M. Hull, Washington; John McDonald, West. County Chairman McNutt and Secretaries C. C. Connell were also present.

The committee organized by electing A. R. Dow, of Salem, secretary, after which the committee adjourned until 1 o'clock.

Suit on a Note.
Lisbon, September 9.—(Special).—Robert London, of Hanoverton, has entered suit against L. J. McGhee, of Pittsburgh, asking judgment for $275 with interest from October 17, 1897, alleged to be due on a promissory note. A car of oats on the C. & P. tracks in East Liverpool has been attached to satisfy the claim.

POSTOFFICE OFFICIALS AGAIN INDICTED

Grand Jury Investigating Postoffice Frauds Charge Conspiracy.

Washington, September 9.—(Special).—The names of the two officials indicted yesterday by the grand jury, now investigating the alleged post-office frauds, were made known today. They are George W. Beavers and August W. Machen, both high officials in the department.

The charge made by the grand jury is conspiracy.

SITUATION IN SYRIA IS MORE GRAVE

Fearful That the Massacre of the Christians at Lebanon Is Intended.

Cairo, Egypt, September 9.—(Special).—Late advices from Syria are that the situation is growing more and more grave. It is feared that the massacre of the Christians at Lebanon is intended.

Washington, September 9.—(Special).—The navy department was informed today by Admiral Cotton that the situation at Beirut is improving.

ANXIETY OVER THE BOND SALE

City Officials Think the Pittsburgh Concern Doesn't Want the $93,000.

DELAY IS UNEXPLAINED

The belief is quite general among the city officials that J. R. Williams & Co., of Pittsburgh, do not intend to buy the $93,000 worth of bonds over which there has been endless comment for several months. It is thought that the company has an object in deferring matters.

At the regular meeting of council held last evening a member asked Auditor Davidson if he had heard anything favorable from the company and he replied that he had not. He received several communications from the concern last week, and was to have heard from it again before this. The reason for the delay cannot be figured.

As a result of the uneasiness being felt by council and other it is probable that Auditor Davidson will be instructed to get a definite statement from the company as to when it will take the bonds and turn over the money. If he cannot get a favorable report council will very likely let it be known that the bonds are for sale again and receive more bids. One grievous error made by council was when it accepted the bid of Williams & Co. without demanding a bond. Had this been done, the city would be much better off financially if the company does not take the bonds.

It is certainly expedient that council take immediate steps to get the money for those bonds. There are debts too numerous to enumerate that must be paid, and there is not a penny to pay them with. Among them is the cost of

The many creditors of Mrs. J. A. Kulow, proprietress of a grocery store, Eighth street, West End, for a couple of years, continue in mourning over her prolonged absence. Some of them have instituted proceedings to recover the goods sold to the woman and numerous cases will be set for hearings by local justices during the next few days. She has written to a friend that she is on a pleasure trip.

Three suits were filed against Mrs. Kulow yesterday. Faulk Bros. are suing in the court of Squire McLane for $16.50, which amount they claim is due them for feed. W. F. Davidson, of Steubenville, sues for $89 in the court of Squire Rose for general merchandise, and George Arner, of Chester, sues for nearly $100 in the court of Squire McCarron. It is considered doubtful if the trio above named will be able to recover the amounts they

OHIO NOT LIKELY TO BE REPRESENTED

No Regiment Will Be Sent to the Government Maneuvers in Kentucky.

THE BEST SHOWING MADE

At State Encampment Was By the Eighth Which Would Be Glad to Go. Merger of All Ohio Wholesale Groceries Proposed.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, September 9.—Governor Nash inclines to the view that an Ohio regiment will not be sent to the government maneuvers at West Point, Ky. They will be held from September 26 to October 14, and each state is entitled to representation. The governor thinks that the Ohio soldiers would not care to go when they learn that they would only receive pay at the rate of $13 per month, the regular government allowance. Some time ago it was announced that General Charles Dick had arranged for a representation of the Ohio National Guard at these maneuvers, but thus far no steps have been taken to carry out this course. It was generally understood that the regiment making the best showing at the recent encampment would be selected to go to Kentucky, and according to information received from authentic sources competent military judges picked the Eighth regiment as the finest from all standpoints. The regiment easily excelled in drilling and was the only command completely equipped in the regulation uniforms. The uniformity of the regiment as to dress was generally commented upon. It would seem if a regiment is sent it would be the Eighth and if there is any deviation from the original announcement by General Dick, keen disappointment will be felt by the officers of the Eighth, who are anxious to take the trip. A tacit promise was given that the regiment making the best record would be sent, and the Eighth officers want to see it fulfilled.

Figures given out from the adjutant general's office indicate that the recent National Guard encampment cost about $75,000. Division Commissary Colonel Harry Freese, of Canton, kept the subsistence expenses down to $16,760.40. The per diem of the mounted officers, paid by the national government, amounted to a little over $9,000. The per diem of other officers and enlisted men amounted to a little over $14,000. This the state pays.

A meeting will be held in this city today having for its object the forming of a merger of all the wholesale grocery interests of the state. The projectors are F. L. and W. M. Letts, of Chicago, who, aided by E. E. Dow, of Toledo, one of the leading wholesalers of the state, have been at work on the scheme for the past six months. All the wholesale grocers have been requested to attend or to send representatives with authority to act. If organized, the merger will be known as the Ohio Grocery company, with headquarters probably at Columbus. There are 110 wholesale grocery firms in the state, and 15 have practically agreed to go into the company. The majority have not committed themselves on the proposition, but are expected to be represented at the meeting. The Alliance Grocery company, of Alliance, is said to be one of the firms which have already agreed to join the movement.

Charles P. Salen, of Cleveland, Tom Johnson's personal representative, has been made chairman of the Democratic state executive committee and will manage the fall campaign. Hon. Anthony Howells, of Massillon, has been made the Eighteenth district representative on the committee. Chairman Salen will appoint a committee on meetings and speakers comprising one member from each county. Headquarters will not be moved from Columbus. It is thought probable that Johnson and Clarke will speak in Columbiana county. The Democratic campaign from all indications will be prosecuted very energetically and Chairman Dick has issued a warning against lack of confidence and over-confidence on the part of the Republicans. This is the greatest danger, he says.

The receipts from visitors at the penitentiary last week were about $3,500, the largest for any fair week yet. The receipts last year were about $2,100.

BIG BARN BURNED

Lightning Strikes a Blaze That Caused a Big Loss to a Farmer.

Lisbon, Sept. 9.—(Special).—A large barn on the Edward Starr farm near the Beaver church, 5 1/2 miles from Lisbon was fired by lightning at 6 o'clock last evening and totally destroyed with all its contents, of hay and grain and farming tools. There was no insurance. The contents belonged to John Lykauf, the tenant.

BUSINESS MAN FLEES FROM PARKERSBURG, W. VA., WITH PRETTY YOUNG WOMAN

Creditors With Large Claims Are in Mourning—Couple Came to This City.

Another chapter in a sensational bankruptcy case at Parkersburg, in which one of the wealthiest and most highly respected business men of that city went to the wall and left creditors, who never once entertained a thought of his financial condition, to sing for thousands of dollars, has been added by the flight of the man with a well known woman, also of Parkersburg, to this city. The name of the bankrupt is J. M. Stone, who was the senior member of the Stone & Gates Lumber company, which concern did the largest business of any firm in that section of the country for years. Of his flight to East Liverpool the Ripley, W. Va., Herald says:

"Stone is supposed to be accompanied by a woman, Mattie Reese, formerly a dining room girl at the Commercial Hotel, and from Racy, Ritchie county, who is said to have been the mistress of a Parkersburg home, presumably kept up by Stone, for a year or two. She is said to have disposed of a $1500 house, last week, realizing about $600, and left Parkersburg on a north bound Ohio river train, telling the conductor she was going to East Liverpool and checked her baggage for some point in Ohio, where she was probably joined by Stone, who may have gone via Cumberland and Pittsburgh. She had also disposed of $300 worth of household goods at $45. It is not believed that

THOUGHT HE HAD THE SMALLPOX

A Stranger Who Was Ill Caused Consternation at City Hall.

TRUSTEES CARE FOR HIM

His face, neck and entire body completely covered with blotches, resembling much the marks of small pox, dark circles under his eyes and trembling from head to foot, Walter Smith, aged 28, straggled into the city hall shortly after noon today and applied for a place where he could receive medical attention. The general appearance of the man was so bad that for a moment great excitement prevailed at the building.

Smith said that he had been working for several months on the Van Fossan farm, a few miles north of the city, and that he was turned away a few days ago owing to his sickness. The people for whom he worked thought him sick with small pox and ordered him to depart. He went from there to a farm back of Wellsville and worked a couple of days when he was sent away again. He walked to Wellsville yesterday and applied to the mayor of that city for aid but he was heartlessly turned away and he continued his journey to this city. Arriving this morning he went to several places but was received coldly everywhere and as a last resort he found his way to the city hall.

Sanitary Policeman Burgess examined the man carefully and pronounced his affliction a severe attack of rash together with blood poisoning. He was told to go to the township trustees. Smith was about the dirtiest looking individual that has been seen in the city in years. From his appearance one would have taken him to be at least 45 years of age. He says he has lived in the state of Ohio all his life and that his parents died when he was but two years old. The trustees will likely take care of him.

She had also disposed of $300 worth of household goods at $45. It is not believed that

Supt. Brown, of the East Liverpool bridge, stated to a reporter of the News Review this morning that he had known Stone for years and that there was not a man in Parkersburg who had the confidence of the people of that city more than Stone. He also stated that the case was the greatest surprise that has been sprung on Parkersburg people in a decade.

Inquiry was made at the several hotels of the city to ascertain whether or not Stone and the Reese woman had been registered at any of them during the past few days, but nothing could be learned more than the clerk is one of the hosteleries remembered of a couple answering the description of the pair being at the hotel on Saturday night. Their names were not registered Stone and Reese, however, and if the couple they are sailing under fictitious names.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

TRADE CONDITIONS.

During the last week the crockery business in New York waterworks has been rather quiet, but not unseasonable. The cold, rainy days and the yacht races had, of course, some effect in curtailing the demand, but just at this time of the year, the trade generally experiences a waiting market, says the Commercial. Most of the buyers have not yet returned from their vacations and the bustle incident to fall business will not start in until next week. There are, however, bright prospects for increasing trade during the remainder of the year.

Advises from the pottery centers report that orders are arriving quite regularly, although there is plenty of room for improvement. All the potteries are now in operation and there are enough orders on hand to keep things moving. The traveling men are on the road, sizing up the situation in the various localities and pushing their new production. They generally report good prospects and trade conditions.

The dullness shown in the domestic pottery line is also reflected to a greater or less extent in foreign wares, but the latter are holding their own in anticipation of a heavy demand a little later.

MINERVA NOTES.

John Castello has left for a few weeks' visit in Salem.

Elmer McDewitt, Fred Owens, E. Wooliscroft, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Clark, Miss Amelia Kell and O. Boles visited with friends in East Liverpool over Sunday.

William Malcolm and Ben Luke stopped a short time in town Tuesday evening on their way to Carrollton, where they are employed in the pottery.

Mrs. John Goddard is spending a few days with friends in Wellsville.

THE WEATHER.

Ohio—Fair in west, showers in east portion; cooler in west portion; Thursday fair; fresh southwest to north-west winds.

Western Pennsylvania—Showers; Thursday probably fair; fresh southwest to north-west winds.

West Virginia—Showers and cooler; Thursday fair.

Dan Cronin, of the Salem China company, was a business visitor in town Monday.

George Wyllie was in Liverpool the first of the week on business.

The Minerva China company is at present running almost in full and prospects of a good fall trade. The line of ware that is being made is quite fine and far beyond expectations.

INTEREST AROUSED.

The interest manifested in the celebration of Labor day this year was so pronounced among the pottery locals that the result is already being felt in more ways than one. The organizations which held meetings last night were characterized by more enthusiasm on the part of the members than has been known for months. It is expected that the meetings will be better attended and more interesting for a long time to come. Officers and members are taking up the work with renewed vigor and there will undoubtedly be a noticeable change for the better in every local in the city.

CLAY MINERS STRIKE.

The clay miners employed at the Great Western and Little Giant mines at Toronto are out on a strike because the operators would not grant their demand of two cents a ton more for clay mined. The present scale is 20 cents and the men ask 22. About 20 men are affected. The operators claim they will not grant the increase. Several of the striking miners have left town, having secured work at other mines.

NOW AT TORONTO.

Will Witham, formerly of this city, is one of the victims of the change at the Thomas plant, Lisbon, from general ware to electric porcelain. Mr. Witham was in the city for Labor day and was the guest of Will Devon, of Thompson avenue, leaving this morning for Toronto, where he has secured a situation with the American China company. Before going to Lisbon Mr. Witham was the foreman of the plant at Canonsburg.

THOMPSON'S BUSY.

Last week was a busy one at the Thompson, with the exception of the decorating department, which had only the usual amount to do. In several departments the operatives were compelled to work overtime to turn out the ware as fast as it was needed to fill imperative orders. The prospects are bright for a good fall trade with the Thompson.

Federal Grand Jury Returns
Seven More Indictments
in Postal Cases.

BEAVERS ARRESTED IN NEW YORK

Several Cases Yet Remain to Be Disposed of—Warrants Out for Indicted Individuals—Leopold Stern Located Across the Border.

Washington, Sept. 9.—After deliberating for several weeks over a mass of documents submitted by the postoffice inspectors, the federal grand jury returned seven indictments in postal cases, involving six different persons. All the indictments were kept off the public record and both the officials of the district attorney's office and of the postoffice department refused to divulge names or details of the indictments until the parties indicted are arrested. The identity of the indicted individuals thus was left a matter of conjecture. It is expected that arrests will occur today and that the postoffice department will have some announcement to make during the forenoon.

Work in Washington Almost Finished. The grand jury's action probably marks the beginning of the end of the investigation that has been in progress since the middle of last March. Voluminous evidence has been laid before the grand jury as the result of the inquiry, and while the present report of the jury disposes of most of the cases, there yet remain several cases to be passed upon. When the latter are disposed of, according to Postmaster General Payne, the investigation, so far as the work at Washington is concerned, will be at an end for all practical purposes. Several of the persons indicted live outside of Washington. They will be arrested as soon as bench warrants can be served.

Postmaster General Payne and Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Eristow received word of the grand jury's action after that body reported and subsequently they had a long conference on the subject. Both officials refused to divulge details pending official notification of arrests. Two other important events occurred in the postal inquiry.

Vexed at Premature Publicity. Leopold Stern, the Baltimore contractor, who disappeared from Baltimore before he could be arrested or an indictment returned July 31 last was located at Toronto, and the long delayed surrender of George W. Beavers, the former head of the salary and allowance division, to the New York authorities took place. The postal officials have been searching for Stern ever since he disappeared and finally received word from the Canadian authorities that he is in Toronto. They expressed considerable

Twenty-Four Injured, Three Probably Fatally—Ambulances Convey Wounded to Hospital.

Leavenworth, Kan., Sept. 9.—A grand stand erected on a knoll on the Fort Leavenworth reservation gave way during a sham battle by regular troops, injuring 24 persons. Many received broken legs. Fully 1,500 people were crowded upon it.

There was a heavy artillery duel with siege guns. Three battalions of infantry were using black powder. Some one announced that the cavalry were emerging from a ravine to charge. People on the grand stand jumped up to see them through the smoke and the entire stand went down with a crash. The utmost confusion followed, accompanied by shrieks of victims. Many were pinned down under the boards.

The confusion was indescribable until the regular soldiers formed a line and kept all back not injured or caring for those injured. The battle, which was at its height on the opposite side of the road, was called off at once and the soldiers began taking care of the injured. Ambulances were used to convey people to the city hospitals and within an hour after the accident the injured had all been removed. All those injured are alive, but it is believed three will die.

MYSTERY OF CAPTIVE DOG TO BE SOLVED

Held a Prisoner in Chaffinville All Summer; But Will Be Set Free By Officer Fisher.

The mystery of a captive canine is about to be solved through a telephone tip received at the East End fire station this morning. The identity of the person who sent the message could not be learned and in consequence the people will probably never know just whom to praise for their deliverance. The canine has been held a prisoner in some secluded nook in Chaffinville and has been kept in close confinement since early in the summer. Deprived of the companionship of his kindred, the captive has been compelled to amuse himself by communing with the moon, using for this purpose a full and plaintive, though somewhat rasping bark.

Several amateur detectives have endeavored to win renown by solving the mystery, but they failed to find the place of concealment of the poor, forlorn pup. The musings with the moon continued, night after night, but the cries were like those from a ghost, not to be located. People despaired of ever getting to the bottom of the matter and incidentally of getting any sleep of nights, until the unknown sent the tip to the police station this morning. Now it is all off with the dark plot.

It is the opinion of the mysterious person that some marplot from the down yander regions, with a fondness for petit larceny and coon dogs, has purloined the animal and is holding him until the opening of the coon hunting season, which will be along about the first frost. Officer Fisher will in vain Chaffinville this afternoon, however, and release the prisoner. The mysterious person described the dog as being a little short in the neck, somewhat cat-banned, narrow across the chest and loins, yellow with black spots, full-throated and large yearning eyes. It is thought that Officer Fisher can easily recognize him from the description.

Firemen Make a Gift.

The happiness of Edward Wilson, who was married Monday to Miss Tillie Copestick, was further increased yesterday when a fine Morris chair was delivered at his pretty home on Pennsylvania avenue. With the chair was an explanatory card, stating that it was a gift from the East Liverpool fire department, and also expressing the heartiest congratulations from the fire laddies and their best wishes for a long and happy life. The gift is a small token of the high esteem the firemen have for Mr. Wilson, who has fought with them at several fierce conflagrations. As a special policeman Mr. Wilson has often been called upon to help the firemen and he has proved to be an efficient and daring worker. His appreciation of the gift can scarcely be stated in words.

Carman-Adair.

Miss Maude Carman and Ross Adair were married last night at Pittsburgh in the presence of the near relatives and friends of the contracting parties. Justice L. W. Carman, of the East End, father of the bride, and her sister, Miss Nellie, a teacher in the Chester schools, were present. The bride is a charming and talented young lady and has a host of friends in the East End. The groom is a prominent young business man, whose home is at Derwent, O.

Arrangements are being made by the Toronto tribe to have the degree team and band from Pan-American court visit Toronto within the next two weeks.

Oaklands vs. Brunos.

The Oakland foot ball team has commenced active field practice to be in readiness for the Brunos in the game scheduled for the 15th of this month. Coach Myler is drilling the players in the new rules and plays and the team will be in good shape for the game. Last year the Oakland defeated the Brunos in a great game at Columbian park.

Willis Greene and Herbert Congrove, two popular conductors on the East Liverpool line, have returned from St. Louis, where they spent a short vacation taking in the sights of that great city. They will resume their runs in a day or two.

[Letters From Two Prominent Men.]

CONGRESSMAN DUNGAN.

Congressman Irvine Dungan of Jackson, O., elected to the Fifty-second Congress as a Democrat, in a recent letter from Washington, D. C., says:

"I desire to join with my many friends in recommending your invaluable remedy, Peruna, to anyone in need of an invigorating tonic, and whose system is run down by catarrhal troubles. Peruna is a permanent and effective cure for catarrh and I would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to try this remarkable remedy."

Everybody is subject to catarrh. Peruna cures catarrh, acute or chronic, wherever located.

Hon. Thomas Gahan of Chicago, member of the National Committee of the Democratic party, writes as follows:

"I was afflicted with catarrh for fourteen years and though I tried many remedies and applied to several doctors I was not able to find a cure. I took Peruna for twenty-two weeks and am now entirely cured."—Thomas Gahan.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be glad to give you his valuable advice free.

Go Prepared.

In preparing for your summer outing a little forethought may save you no end of trouble. Mr. John H. Manly, a dry goods merchant, of Belleville, R. I., while packing an outfit for camping a few weeks on Narragansett Bay, put in a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for emergency use. The second day in camp his little boy was taken with cramp colic. The first dose of this remedy gave relief and the second dose effected a cure. Think of the pain and suffering this boy would have had to endure without this remedy at hand to relieve him. Such cases often result, Saturday. For sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

TURKISH VERSION OF TROUBLE

Says Christians Attacked Mussulmen at Beirut—Four Persons Injured.

Washington, Sept. 9.—A cablegram from the Turkish foreign office to Chokki Bey, the Turkish minister here, gives the following version of the trouble at Beirut Sunday, reported by Admiral Cotton in his dispatch to the navy department:

Some Christians of the city of Beirut attacked four Mussulmen and during the melee which followed four persons were injured. Three of these were soldiers. Two persons are dead, one of whom is a soldier.

The minister called on Secretary Hay during the day and gave him the contents of his dispatch.

Later the minister received a dispatch from Constantinople characterizing as "absolutely false" the published reports that there was no security in Constantinople and that Mussulmen and the Imperial troops were responsible for massacres and the setting fire to houses in Roumelia. This dispatch was in reply to one sent by the minister calling the attention of his government to the reports of this character.

Another dispatch says that 22 Bulgarian brigands were killed in the vicinity of Resne (Monastir) and 40 others on a farm at Florina. A band of brigands entrenched on a small elevation at Lapschinek was dispersed.

Don't delay a minute. Cholera infantum, dysentery, diarrhoea come suddenly. Only safe plan is to have Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry always on hand.

Yellow clothes are unsightly. Keep them white with Red Cross Bag Blue. All grocers sell large package, 5 cents.

SCROFULA A DISEASE WE INHERIT.

Scrofula manifests itself in many ways. Swelling of the glands of the neck and throat, Catarrh, weak eyes, white swelling, offensive sores and abscesses, skin eruptions, loss of strength and weakness in muscles and joints. It is a miserable disease and traceable in almost every instance to some family blood taint. Scrofula is bred in the bone, is transmitted from parent to child, the seeds are planted in infancy and unless the blood is purged and purified and every atom of the taint removed Scrofula is sure to develop at some period in your life.

Scrofula appeared on the head of my little grandchild when only 18 months old, and spread rapidly over her body. The disease next attacked the eyes and we feared she would lose her sight. Eminent physicians were consulted, but could do nothing to relieve the little innocent. It was then that we decided to try S. S. S. That medicine at once made a speedy and complete cure. She is now a healthy baby, and has never had a sign of the disease to return.

MRS. RUTH BERKLY, Salina, Kan.

No remedy equals S. S. S. as a cure for Scrofula. It cleanses and builds up the blood, makes it rich and pure, and under the tonic effects of this great Blood Remedy, the general health improves, the digestive organs are strengthened, and there is a gradual but sure return to health. The deposit of tubercular matter in the joints and glands is carried off as soon as the blood is restored to a normal condition, and the sores, eruptions, and other symptoms of Scrofula disappear. S. S. S. is guaranteed purely vegetable and harmless; an ideal blood purifier and tonic that removes all blood taint and builds up weak constitutions. Our physicians will advise without charge, all who write us about their case. Book mailed free.

SALVATION ARMY GOING TO KENTUCKY

Col. Holz And Others Will Invade Mountain Districts Where the Feudists Dwell.

Cleveland, September 9.—Col. R. E. Holz, of the Salvation army, has returned from New York, bringing the uniforms to be worn by the officers who go forth under his command to make the evangelistic invasion of the feud districts in the mountains of Kentucky. While in New York Col. Holz perfected arrangements for the invasion and secured approval of his plan to locate posts for permanent work in the feud district.

The Salvation army tailor made the uniforms on United States army plans, and the officers will wear the leggings and campaign hats like Uncle Sam's soldiers.

Col. Holz will be in command. With him will be Capt. Boyd and Lieut. Slayton, of Cleveland; Capt. White, Ensign Zeal and Capt. Pond, of Pittsburgh; Capt. Escott, Capt. Alford, Capt. Galharr and Capt. White, of Louisville. The men chosen are all good singers and musicians, and will make music an attractive feature of the campaign.

The officers will meet in Cincinnati September 14. Horses and camp equipment will be supplied at Jackson, Ky., and the campaign will open there with two days' services.

From there they will visit Sailorville and half a dozen other places; then cross the Cumberland mountains into Virginia and Tennessee, closing at Knoxville September 29.

All arrangements on the route have been made by Captains Alford and Escott. Lieut. Slayton will be one of the officers located in the districts to develop the work.

Col. Holz says he has assurances of cordial welcome and co-operation from all the places to be visited.

COUNTY AND NEIGHBORHOOD

Richard Brown, aged 75, a veteran iron manufacturer of Youngstown, is dead.

Mr. Harold, of Leontonia, has presented a pipe organ to Grace United Evangelical church of Warren.

Prof. C. L. Merwin, principal of the East Palestine schools, has been elected superintendent of the Newton Falls schools.

Lewis Tritch, whose home is near Salineville, had his arm torn off while operating a hay bailer near Summitville.

The Sons of Veterans of Salem have been presented a handsome picture of Philip Triem, for whom the camp was named.

John Forchert died at his home in Enon Valley. His death is thought to be due to worry over the death of his wife, which occurred two weeks ago.

Mrs. L. W. Strawn died at her home in Bellevue, Va., after several months' illness. She was born and raised near Salem and was a daughter of James R. England and wife.

The Washington & Canonsburg Electric railway, connecting those two towns, has been completed and put in operation. The road is seven miles in length and cost about $600,000.

R. H. Morrow and daughter, of Chicago, are visiting at the home of his brother, G. W. Morrow, near Center Chapel. They enjoyed rather a novel trip, coming the entire distance in their automobile.

Mrs. Helen Wick, a widow, aged 54, residing on Meadow street, Youngstown, was instantly killed in an outbuilding where she had taken shelter during a severe thunder storm, by being struck by lightning. She was badly burned and the building was entirely destroyed. Mrs. Wick leaves five children.

Bad blood and indigestion are deadly enemies to good health. Burdock Blood Bitters destroys them.

Horses Frightened at Hearse.

Denver, Sept. 9.—Frightened by the flashing of the black trimmings on the hearse at a funeral in Valverde, the team attached to the next carriage in line ran away, the carriage was overturned and nine persons were injured.

A summer remedy that will be appreciated in every household, especially those containing children, is Haeger's Cordial of Cod Liver Oil. For the numerous disorders of stomach and blood incident to hot weather it can not be equaled. Pleasant to take—contains no grease.

REALM OF SPORTS

WHEELING WILL REMAIN IN THE CENTRAL LEAGUE

Team Draws Well Regardless of Its Standing And Is Now Making a Great Record.

Wheeling has proved the best paying city in the Central league and will be retained next year in spite of the talk to the contrary. The only objection to the city of Stogies has been its great distance from the other cities of the league, but the good attendance at the games, regardless of the standing of the team, more than offsets the objection.

The Wheeling team is making a record that probably will not be excelled by any team in any league. After half the season below the .500 mark, the Stogies struck a fast clip and have been showing the way for the other teams. Leaders and tail enders have looked alike and with the three games on Labor day they have won 22 out of the last 24 and seem to be safely entrenched in fourth place.

That the Stogies have some strong players is apparent from the fact that managers of teams in the major organizations are after them. Catcher Shannon was recently released to the St. Louis Americans and has been taking his regular turn in the box. He caught a nice game Sunday and will make good.

In the recent games Miller, the popular southpaw who played here with the preachers this season, has been winning his share. He has already shown sufficient ability to warrant the Wheeling papers to assert that he will be retained for next season.

All of Cleveland's regular twirlers, Joss, Bernhard and Moore, are in the hospital and the youngsters recently signed are doing the twirling. They are Glendon, Killian and Stoval, and they have been winning a majority of the games.

Synopsis of Preceding Chapters.

CHAPTER I.—Grenfell Lorry, a wealthy occupant who refuses or neglects to do anything with a charming foreign girl on the train from Denver to Washington. The pair are left behind when the train stops for repairs in West Virginia. Lorry, who is left behind, is told by the unknown girl that she is a dangerous ride. There is no love-making, but a near approach to it as the rolling stage tumbles the passengers about. III.—Lorry dines with the foreign party, consisting of Miss Guggenlocker, Uncle Caspar and Aunt Yvonne. They are natives of Graustark, a country of Washington. They leave for New York to sail on the Kaiser Wilhelm. Miss Guggenlocker naively calls Lorry her "ideal American" and invites him to come and see her at Edgewood, V. CHAPTER XXVI.—Continued.

Yvette begged Bolaroz to continue to make the court his home while in Graustark, and the old prince responded with the declaration that he would remain long enough to sign and approve the new covenant at least. Before stepping from the throne Yvette called in low tones to Lorry, a pretty flush mantling her cheek.

"Will you come to me in half an hour?"

"For my reward?" he asked eagerly.

"Ach," she cried softly, reprovingly. Count Halfont's face took on a troubled expression as he caught the swift communication in their eyes. After all, she was a princess.

She passed from the room beside Halfont, proud and happy in the victory over despair, glorying in the exposure of her heart to the world, her blood tingling and dancing with the joys of anticipation. Lorry and Anguish, the wonder and admiration of all, were given a short but convincing lesson in the hallway. Lords and ladies praised and lauded them, overwhelming them with the homage that comes to the brave. But Gaspon uttered one wish that struck Lorry's warm, leaping heart like a piece of ice.

"Would to God that you were a prince of the realm," said the minister of finance, a look of regret and longing in his eyes. That wish of Gaspon's sent Lorry away with the sharp steel of desolation torturing intensely as it drove deeper and deeper the reawakened pangs of uncertainty. There still remained the fatal distance between him and the object of his heart's desire.

He accompanied Captain Quinnox to his quarters, where he made himself presentable before starting for the enchanted apartment in the far end of the castle. Love and fear combined to give him strength; from his eyes fled the hopeless look, from his brain the doubt, from his blood the chill.

"Quinnox, give me your hand; don't mind the blood! You have been my friend, and you have served her almost to the death. I injured and would have killed you in that cell, but it was not in anger. Will you be my friend in all that is to follow?"

"She has said that she loves you," said the captain, returning the hand clasp. "I am at your service as well as hers."

A few moments later Lorry was in her presence. What was said or done during the half hour that passed between his entrance and the moment that brought them side by side from the room need not be told. That the interview had had its serious side was plain. The troubled, anxious eyes of the girl and the rebellious, dogged air of the man told of a conflict now only in abeyance.

"I will never give you up," he said as they came from the door. A wistful gleam flickered in her eyes, but she did not respond in words.

Near the head of the stairway an animated group of persons lingered. Harry Anguish was in the center, and the Countess Dagmar was directly in front of him, looking up with sparkling eyes and parted lips. The Count and Countess Halfont, Gaspon, the Baron Dangloss, the Duke of Mizrox, with other ladies and gentlemen, were being entertained by the gay spirited stranger.

"Here he comes," cried the latter as he caught sight of the approaching couple.

"I am delighted to see you, Harry. You were the friend in need, old man," said Lorry, wringing the other's hand. Yvette gave him her hand, her blue eyes overflowing.

"Mr. Anguish had just begun to tell us how he—how he—began Dagmar," but paused helplessly, looking to him for relief.

"Go ahead, countess. It isn't very elegant, but it's the way I said it. How I got next to Gabriel is what she wants to say. Perhaps your highness would like to know all about the affair that ended so tragically. It's very quickly told," said Anguish.

"I am deeply interested," said the princess eagerly.

"Well, in the first place, it was all a bluff," said he coolly.

"A what?" demanded Dagmar.

"Bluff," responded Harry briefly.

"American patois, dear countess."

"In what respect?" asked Lorry, beginning to understand.

"In all respects. I didn't have the slightest sign of proof against the festive prince."

"Do I understand you to say that you have no evidence against Gabriel?" asked Halfont, dumfounded.

"Not a particle."

"But you said his confederate had confessed," protested Dangloss.

"I didn't know that he had a confederate, and I wasn't sure that he was guilty of the crime," boasted Anguish, complacently enjoying the stupefaction.

"Then why did you say so?" demanded Dangloss, excited beyond measure.

"Oh, I just guessed at it!"

"God save us!" gasped Baron Dangloss, chief of police.

"Guessed at it?" cried Mizrox.

"That's it. It was a bold stroke, but it won. Now, I'll tell you this much: I was morally certain that Gabriel killed the prince. There was no way on earth to prove it, however, and I'll admit it was intuition or something of that sort which convinced me. He had tried to abduct the princess, and he was madly jealous of Lorenz. All though he knew there was to be a duel, he was not certain that Lorenz would lose, so he adopted a clever plan to get rid of two rivals by killing one and ransacking suspicion on the other. These deductions I made soon after the murder, but, of course, could secure no proof."

"Early this morning at the hotel I made up my mind to denounce him suddenly if I had the chance, risking failure, but hoping for such an exhibition as that which you saw. It was clear to me that he had an accomplice to stand guard while he did the stabbing, but I did not dream it was Berrowag. Lorry's sensational appearance, when I believed him to be far away from here, disturbed me greatly, but it made it all the more necessary that I should take the risk with Gabriel. As I watched him I became absolutely convinced of his guilt. The only way to accuse him was to do it boldly and thoroughly; so I rang in the accomplice and the witness features. You all know how the 'bluff' worked."

"And you had no more proof than this?" asked Dangloss weakly.

"That's all," laughed the delighted strategist.

Dangloss stared at him for a moment, then threw up his hands and walked away, shaking his head, whether in stupefied admiration or utter disbelief no one knew. The others covered Anguish with compliments, and he was more than ever the hero of the day. Such confidence paralyzed the people. The only one who was not overcome with astonishment was his countryman.

"You did it well," he said in an undertone to Anguish—"devilish well!"

"You might at least say I did it to the queen's taste," growled Anguish meaningly.

"Well, then, you did," laughed Lorry.

The Genuine vs. the Counterfeits.

The genuine is always better than a counterfeit, but the truth of this statement is never more forcibly realized than when you compare the genuine with when you compare the genuine with the many counterfeits and worthless substitutes that are on the market. W. S. Ledbetter, of Shreveport, La., says: "After using numerous other remedies without benefit, one box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me." For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles no remedy is equal to DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve.

LITTLE BUSINESS

DONE BY COUNCIL

The Gas Question Took Up Most of the Time of the City Fathers.

Aside from receiving the report of Solicitor Davidson on his official visit to Ravenna, council transacted but little business at the regular meeting last evening. President Horwell and every member except Johnson, who was unavoidably detained, were present.

The plat of J. T. Smith, who dedicated a certain alley abutting on Ravine street to the city, was accepted, upon the recommendation of the solicitor, who had thoroughly investigated it.

The monthly report of Mayor Weaver was accepted and the members seemed much pleased at the amount of fines and licenses collected. They aggregated $454, making the average since the mayor has been in office considerably over $200.

It was expected that some action would be taken on the garbage question but owing to an overrush the solicitor could not prepare the contract, which was to be signed by the Sanitary Reduction company, and the question was deferred until the next meeting, called for Friday evening.

SOUTH SIDE

ANOTHER WELL

WILL BE DRILLED

Chester Oil And Gas Company Will Again Make a Test of Its Lease.

Arrangements have at last been completed for the beginning of work upon the second well of the Chester Oil & Gas company, and this time it is certain the results will be satisfactory even if the expected big strike is not made.

Negotiations have been on for some time looking to the further development of the 500 acres of promising land in the southerly portion of Hancock county. Within the past two weeks John Webster, one of the more enthusiastic members of the company, has been circulating among his fellows with a view of securing their consent to proceed with the work. This task has been so successful that the contract will be let within a few days.

It has been known that the well put down by Thomas Stewart some time ago was not satisfactory to the company, and this fact has delayed action with reference to the further development of the field. Then the company was informed that Edward Stewart, who is thoroughly conversant with the oil business, would be willing to take up the work where it had been left off. He refused to proceed with the task, however, without the contract calling for more money than had been invested on the previous occasion being forthcoming. On the other hand, Mr. Stewart expressed himself as being willing to put up a bond binding himself to faithfully carry out his part of the agreement.

It is estimated the drillers will need to go down at least 900 feet, and the price quoted by Mr. Stewart is $900. The members of the company are not averse to investing this amount provided the work is satisfactory, which is assured in this case. The well has been located on the William Allison farm, about 800 feet directly south of the old hole, and work will be started within a few days.

STATE CONVENTION OF THE JR. O. U. A. M.

Annual Council at Martinsburg, State Councilor Allison in Attendance.

The state convention of the West Virginia Jr. O. U. A. M. is now well under way at Martinsburg, and is one of the most successful meetings ever held by the organization.

State Councilor O. O. Allison, of Chester, submitted his annual report early in the week and it was enthusiastically received by the delegates. The document shows that the administration of Councilor Allison was the most successful in many years. During the year just ended seven new councils have been instituted, while several old ones were reinstated. The net increase in membership throughout the year was 661. The record made by Mr. Allison has not been equaled by any other state councilor, and in addition to receiving the report with the grateful thanks of the membership, Councilor Allison was highly commended by members of the national council and other high officials.

The election was held yesterday and resulted in the selection of A. J. Frick as state councilor. The gentleman is a prominent resident of Wheeling and will make a good official.

Mr. Allison and the other Chester people who have been in attendance at the convention left for Washington, D. C. today. They will spend several weeks in the east visiting the points of interest and popular resorts.

BULLET OF BURGLAR

Lays Low Aged Citizens at His Home Near Huntington, W. Va.

MADE DESPERATE RESISTANCE

Bloodhounds Trace Fleeing Bandits to River—If Caught Lynching May Follow—Believed Victim Was Followed from City.

Huntington, W. Va., Sept. 9.—Hon. Mordica Williams, late Democratic candidate for congress in the Ninth Kentucky district, was shot by burglars at his home, six miles west of here, and is dying.

Mr. Williams, who is an old citizen, was awakened by the intruders and he sprang from his bed and seizing an old rusty saber from the wall—a saber he had carried during his services in the Confederate army—gave the burglars a desperate battle. Although he was dealt a dozen stunning blows, he pressed on, striking right and left, and succeeded in beating the bandits down the stairway.

A third burglar in the yard, who was evidently on guard, heard the fight within and running to the front door fired two shots, one of which penetrated Mr. Williams' left breast just below the heart. Williams fell. His aged wife, the only other occupant of the home, telephoned for a doctor and gave the alarm.

Bloodhounds from this city were put on the trail of the bandits and traced them to the river, and later found a point where they left a boat on the Ohio side. Officers with bloodhounds are yet on their trail, and if the bandits are caught they will be lynched.

Mr. Williams is nearing 68 years of age and was the founder of the Eastern Kentucky academy, the leading educational institution of the state. He was in this city until a late hour Monday night and many believe that the murderers followed him from here.

Shaw Addresses Mining Congress. Deadwood, S. D., Sept. 9.—The American Mining congress began the actual work of its sixth annual session, interest centering in an address by Hon. Leslie D. Shaw, secretary of the United States treasury. The secretary was given a warm welcome by the delegates, who frequently applauded his statements, and when he finished speaking gave him a rising vote of thanks and three rousing cheers.

The congress also unanimously elected him an honorary member and appointed a committee of three to draft resolutions thanking President Roosevelt for his recognition of the congress in sending Secretary Shaw to represent him before it, an engrossed copy to be sent to the president.
